

FAIL TO STOP MACKENSEN

SLEDGE HAMMER BLOWS
FLATTEN RUMANIAN
LINES ON TWO FRONTS

London, Oct. 24.—On both the north and southeastern Rumanian fronts the sledge-hammer blows of the Teutonic Allies are rapidly flattening out the Rumanian lines and forcing them back.

In Dobrudja, Field Marshal Von Mackensen inflicted a severe defeat upon the Russo-Rumanian left flank, driving it to the Tzarna Murat district, some 16 miles northwest of Constantza, the Black Sea port he captured day before yesterday.

In the center the field marshal also has made notable progress, forcing his way into Medjidie and driving the Russians and Rumanians into the hills to the north, while along the Danube he has drawn appreciably nearer the Tchernavoda bridgehead by capturing the Danube town of Rashova, nine miles southwest of Tchernavoda. It has taken 6,700 prisoners, 12 cannon and 52 machine guns.

Driving home the attack on the north, General Von Falkenhayn reports as a result of the capture of Predeal, ten miles south of Kronstadt on the Rumanian side of the border, and the collapse of the strong resistance the Rumanians have been offering at the southern end of Rothenthurn Pass on the frontier south of Hermannstadt.

On the northwestern Rumanian front the Russo-Rumanian forces apparently are holding their own. Bucharest reports them on the offensive in the Oituz Valley, where several hundred prisoners and ten machine guns were captured from General Von Falkenhayn's troops.

Berlin describes the British and French operations on the Somme front yesterday as another attempt to break the German lines by the employment of large masses of troops and declares the effort failed with heavy casualties north of the Somme, rows of dead being piled up on the field.

The French attempt south of the river is asserted to have borne down in its inception.

The British war office reported yesterday's fighting as having resulted in a British gain of 1,000 yards of German trenches east of Guinecourt and Les Boells which General Haig's troops clinched last night.

The Young Lady
Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she saw in the papers that fresh biscuits are not indigestible. She masticated thoroughly and she is sure to tell the cook to have them in the oven a little longer and be sure to masticate them all through before putting them on the table.

AMERICAN

Christiana, Monday, October 23. (Via London, Oct. 24.)

America's visiting athletes captured three of the five events decided in competition with Scandinavians. Joe Loomis, of Chicago, won the sixty metre run, finishing ahead of the Norwegian runner, Rustad. In the broad jump, Bob Simpson and Fred Murray, of the American team, captured first and second places respectively. The visitors also won the 800 metre relay race.

The 1,000 metre run Ted Meredith was again defeated by the Swedish champion, J. Bolin, while in the shot put Murray was beaten by the Norwegian, Hellum. Summaries: Sixty metre run (65 yards 10 inches) Loomis, American, first; Rustad, Norwegian, second; Simpson, American, third. Time: 1:10 seconds.

1,000 metre run (1,093 yards 22 inches) Bolin, Sweden, first; Melen, Sweden, second; Meredith, America, third. Time: 2 minutes, 31 1/2 seconds.

Shot put—Hellum, Norwegian, first; Murray, American, second. Distance 12 metres 43 centimetres.

Broad jump—Simpson, American, first; Murray, American, second. Distance, 6 metres 81 centimetres.

Relay race—800 metres (574 yards 32 inches). Americans won against the Scandinavian team. Time: 1 minute 33 1/2 seconds.

UP GOES FLOUR

Willis Tells Audience
Of Saving Made In Agricultural Department

Fremont, Oct. 24.—Governor Willis last night "enthused a large audience by his recital of economies in the agricultural department and its increased efficiency."

He said in part: "We now have a third definition of ideals of 'government' as viewed by my opponent. He has previously defined his idea of 'constructive' government as one that adds to the salary list and increases the number of high-salaried officials. He has previously defined his idea of 'demagoguery' as that which returns power to the people or keeps in their hands that which rightly belongs there. Now, we have a third definition, in his remark that the administration of the agricultural department of the state now is, as he views it, a joke."

"In the view of Mr. Cox farmers are all right on the farms, but have no business in the agricultural affairs of the state. Therefore, he took out of the hands of farmers, control of their own interests, which had been held by them ever since these interests were created by the state and handed them over to four men, not one of whom was a farmer, but who were paid salaries of $3,000 or better a year. Under his law, these men and their appointees, their salaries, etc., were appointed 'by and with the consent of the governor.'"

"We have changed this order. Farmers now control their agricultural interests, and the high salaries have been abolished. Not only this, but a large part of the expense of the agricultural department has been cut off. The total spent by the commission of Mr. Cox and his secretary for the year ending June 30, 1915, totalled $121,437.75. The total spent by the present board of agriculture and its secretary for the year ending June 30, 1916, was $83,285.80. In other words, the saving by the Willis administration by the creation of a real (Continued On Page Eight)

MUST SALUTE FLAG

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 24.—Uniformed police must hereafter recognize the stars and stripes with a salute, whenever seen on parade. The object of the rule, in addition to proper respect for the national flag, is to inspire all members of the police department with a livelier spirit of patriotism. It is also recommended that the same honor be accorded any funeral procession, but this rule is not compulsory.

CARRANZA
INTO TRAP

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—Francisco Villa led the Carranza guard under General Carlos Ozuena into an ambush between Santa Isabel and San Andres on the western division of the Mexico Northwestern railroad Friday, was reported by the federal department agents here today.

Villa retreated from a position outside of Santa Isabel toward San Andres. This led the Carranza vanguard into the trap which Villa is said to have set for them, the government report stated. The barrels along the railroad poured a heavy fire into the Carranza troops from behind rocks, according to the report.

The same source of information claims to have confirmation of the report that the Carranza troops then retreated to Santa Isabel, then to Palomas and are now reported to be in Fresno, the first station west of Chihuahua City.

General Jacinto Trevino sent an official denial today to General Francisco Gonzales in Juarez that General Ozuena had been killed during the fighting with the Villa forces. General Ozuena is alive and in good health.

Plane Falls
Into River; Athlete Is Drowned

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—Alexander Brown, the widely known polo player of this city, fell from his aeroplane into the Delaware river at Essington below this city today and was drowned.

Brown, along with a number of other wealthy Philadelphians, had been making frequent flights at Essington. He was in the air last and today's flight was to have been his last in a test for a license. Brown was about one hundred feet up when watchers noticed that something was wrong and a moment later the machine dropped into the river.

BETHLEHEM
STEEL TAKES
BIG JUMP

New York, Oct. 24.—Bethlehem Steel superseded United States Steel and all other stocks in speculative interest on the stock market today, rising 40 points to the new high record of 625 in the course of the first half hour's trading. This exceeds its previous record by 25 points.

PREPARE TO
SOLDIER VOTE

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Seventeen commissioners appointed by Governor Brumbaugh to take the vote of the 10,000 Pennsylvania national guardsmen on the Mexican border on November 7, took the oath of office today and prepared to leave for Texas. One commissioner is assigned to each of the seventeen commands in the field.

Tableware Joins Group Of Articles That Are Increasing In Price

East Liverpool, Ohio, Oct. 24.—Many potteries engaged in the manufacture of tableware today announced a general advance of twenty percent in selling prices. All goods are to be sold on the lists now in force and twenty percent will be added to invoices. There will be no discounts based on the time of payment. This is the third increase in the tableware trade this year, the first of five percent, having been made in March and the second, also of five percent, in July.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAINMEN
THREATEN TO GO ON STRIKE

$100,000 In Jewels Stolen

New York, Oct. 24.—"A robbery by chloroform thieves" of jewelry valued at about $100,000 from the Roslyn, Long Island, home of Frank Gray Griswold, sportsman and race horse owner, was reported to the police here today. Handkerchiefs saturated with chloroform were found, Mr. Griswold said, in the sleeping rooms of the house this morning when the family awoke and strong boxes, jewel cases and drawers had been ransacked.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 24.—Detectives today were searching for jewels valued at $25,000 stolen a week ago from the home of C. L. Bradley. Reports of the robbery have been kept secret. The burglary was not discovered until twenty-four hours after it had taken place.

FILM CASE
DISMISSED
BY COURT

Columbus, O., Oct. 24.—The supreme court of Ohio today dismissed the "Birth of a Nation" film case, holding that there is no law by which the court can decide whether the order of the Ohio Board of Censors restraining the producers from showing the film in this state is reasonable or unreasonable.

The action was brought to the supreme court on a petition of the Epoch Producing company asking that the order of the board of censors against the showing of the film be overruled. In dismissing the petition, the court, for the time being at least, has virtually ruled that the film cannot be shown in Ohio, as the decision made today leaves the power of the board of censors unmodified.

20 AERIAL COMBATS,
FOUGHT IN THICK MIST;
3 TEUTON CRAFTS FALL

Paris, Oct. 24.—French and German artillery forces were busy last night south of the Somme, where an artillery duel raged in the Riches-Abbeville region. There was no infantry action along the French front in the Somme area, the war office announced today. Three German aeroplanes were brought down in the course of twenty aerial combats that occurred yesterday in the Verdun region during a thick mist.

Odds On Hughes Wiped
Out; Betting On Result Of Election Evens Up

New York, Oct. 24.—Wall Street and at 1 p. m. E. Bunge & Co., a large curb concern, announced that it had $1,000 even money on Hughes. W. E. McGee quickly followed with $5,000 on Hughes at even money. It was freely predicted on the curb that the president will be the favorite in the betting before the end of the week.

HERE, LOAN US THAT ANIMAL

Elyria, O., Oct. 24.—The problem of shucking walnuts without staining the hands has been solved by C. O. Merry. He has put a cow that is fond of walnut shucks in a pasture in which there is a large walnut tree. The cow chews off the shuck, swallows it and leaves the nut clean and ready for use.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK

London, Oct. 24.—The 4,200 ton British steamship Midland, has been sunk.

London, Oct. 24.—According to reports from Bucharest received at Rome and relayed here by wireless telegraph today the forces of the Central Powers took little booty at Constantza as the evacuation of the town was decided upon some time ago. Emperor William, the advice add, has sent congratulations to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria on the capture of Constantza.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24.—With the movement of troops, munitions and crops involved in the threatened strike of the trainmen of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the ministers of the government assembled today at an emergency cabinet meeting to deal with the situation. The government is endeavoring to formulate some plan to avert a tie-up on the system which extends across the dominion.

The trainmen have voted that a strike shall begin Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock. Efforts to bring men and the company together, and to induce the employees to defer action in order to provide time for discussion, have failed.

Later the cabinet issued a public appeal to both sides to reach a settlement. This appeal, asserted that the government regards the situation "as a matter of grave concern."

TO STUDY
LUMBER
MARKET

Washington, Oct. 24.—Examinations of twenty candidates for appointment as government experts to go to Europe to study the market for lumber after the war, were completed today. Five are to be appointed at salaries ranging from $5,000 upwards. One of the appointees will be the choice of the lumbermen of the country and the others of the government. The men are to remain abroad for two years.

BARRED FROM THE BALLOT

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 24.—The supreme court of appeals today decided that no political party organization not comprehended within the definition of the primary election law can participate in the general election next November 7. This action prevents the placing of the Prohibition party ticket on the West Virginia ballot.

Kentucky—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday. Probably rain except far in east portion tonight.

West Virginia—Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight. Wednesday rain.

Teutonic Allies Rush To Assault With Songs; Glad To Again Fight In Open

AT THE HEAD OF PRE-DEAL PASS, RUMANIAN FRONTIER, with General Von Falkenhayn's army, October 18—(by courier to Berlin, via London, Oct. 24.)—In yesterday's battle around Predeal Pass the Associated Press correspondent visited various German and Hungarian battery positions where the men, undisturbed by Rumanian fire, kept up a fearful bombardment of the opposing position in the campaign for the invasion of Rumania. The men went at their work in almost a holiday spirit, for it is with a sense of deep relief that the Germans and Hungarians here, officers and men alike, have left behind them the trench warfare of other regions and thrown themselves into open field maneuvers against the Rumanians.

It was scarcely believable that after two years of strenuous life at the front infantrymen should rush to the assault with songs, yet it is a fact, to which the universal feeling here of dealing with a foe who has yet to learn every trick of modern warfare contributes much. Though the German and Hungarian infantrymen were about to rush into the fire of Rumanian rifles and machine guns, they viewed the situation complacently, saying the worst of open field work was preferable to trench drudgery.

The Predeal battle is one of the few open field actions witnessed in this war by correspondents who are able to approach within less than 3,000 yards of the skirmishing line. At 11 a. m. German artillery opened a desultory fire on the Russian trenches on Susaiul Mountain, 5,000 feet high, which an hour later reached its maximum fury. The fire was then directed mainly against the trenches some five hundred feet below the summit. For a quarter of an hour the Rumanians stuck to their trenches. Word coming from the artillery spotters that the Rumanians thus far seemingly had not been impressed, the artillery increased its fire. The Rumanian infantry still held on a time but finally broke across the slope like a swarm of ants as the German and Hungarian infantry came in view. German artillery followed up the fleeing Rumanians with shrapnel and the manner in which the fire pursued the Rumanians appeared almost unobjectionable.

On a ridge leading from Susaiul Mountain the Rumanians finally reached their second position. A full ensue. A few minutes before two p. m. it was decided to resume operations. German artillery, ably supported by some Hungarian batteries, repeated the work of the morning and the infantry then rushed forward. In a comparatively short time the objective was gained.

The ground being extremely difficult, the Rumanians endeavored to forward infantry reinforcements through the town of Predeal with the result that heavy German and Hungarian guns in side of fifteen minutes blew up half of the town. The Rumanian forces were obliged to seek shelter in the forest above the town, passing through German infantry fire at long range.

The losses of General Von Falkenhayn's army are said to have been light.

Will pay for the chance to heal Catarrh

After an experience of 25 years, during which time 50 million Americans have used Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly, the manufacturers of this remedy feel so sure that it will relieve catarrh—that they offer to pay for a chance to prove its benefit to any catarrhal sufferer. They announce that any resident of this community can go to almost any drug store and get a complimentary trial can at the expense of the manufacturers. If the druggist has no gratuitous packages, the person may buy a 25 cent tube with the unequalled understanding that if that first tube does not do that person good, he or she can get their quarter back from either the druggist, or the Kondon Company at Minneapolis. Over 35,000 druggists know Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly is effective, harmless, clean and pleasant to apply—and they know the Kondon people will gladly live up to this offer—"quarter back if not worth a dollar." Five Barges Of Coal Sunk Swift water which runs like a mill race through the government dam No.

31, a few miles below Portsmouth, is said to have been responsible for the Charles

Brown, a Pittsburgh towboat, sinking four big barges of coal and one smaller barge of coal on the lower side of the dam Monday afternoon.

The tow struck a bar just below the dam. The loss is one of the heaviest of any coal fleet movements of the year. The large barges contained from 24,000 to 26,000 bushels each while the smaller barge held from 14,000 to 16,000 bushels. It was Kanawha coal enroute to Cincinnati. Since the accident the remainder of the Kanawha coal fleet which began passing down Monday morning have been "double-tripping" through the dam to avoid further accidents. The boats which passed down Monday besides the Brown were the Bertha, Sallie and Otto Marnet, Cruiser, Enterprise and A. R. Budd, all with heavy tows to relieve the coal famine that has existed in Cincinnati for several weeks past.

John Peterson, a Swede, who came up from the government dam and imbibed too freely, and Ira Martin, who was begging and waiting to fight those who refused him, were recognized as familiar figures. Both had been in court several times before. Martin tried to make the court believe he was on his way to Cabin Creek valley, where his sister had drowned in the big cloudburst of some weeks ago, he said. The story fell on deaf ears. He was ordered out of town, while Peterson was fined $5. John "Bull" Davis and Roy Sissel, who were caught in a raid on an alley house in the Hill district, were fined $5 each. Lola Dehart, who was found at the home, was ordered held. Lucy Herron, another police character, who was a party to the vile language and "beer" rushing, escaped before officers arrived. A plain drunk giving the name of R. H. Patton was fined $5.

NEW BOSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nagel, of West Grace street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jones, of Columbus, with an eight o'clock lunch Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fitch and family motored to Waits Station to visit relatives.

Cement Contractor Asa Carter has completed a cement walk and steps at the Curtis Pollard home on Rhodes avenue near Vine street.

A concrete wall and small iron fence has been built in front of the steel plant office building on Rhodes avenue and Vine street.

Village Engineer Grover C. Kinley has completed blue prints for the concrete retaining wall that is to be built on the sides of the river road at the foot of West avenue. The road means the excavation of 3300 cubic yards of dirt and the pouring of 210 yards of concrete. The road will have a macadamized surface. The steel company gives $3150 to pay for the cost of the road. The contract is to be let by the steel company, Engineer Kinley and Clark Thos.

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderuff at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath hot and stomach sour?

Harmless "fruit laxative" best to clean tender liver and bowels.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

O'Neal. The work will be done under the supervision of the engineer and clerk of the village, the money being turned over to them. Work will be started this week on the road.

Mrs. D. W. Rignish and daughter, Mrs. Earl Siles of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mary Willard of Osgood, Ind., have returned to their homes after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Ida M. Rose and Mrs. Anna McCade.

POLICE NEWS

Alex McKinney, a steelworker, who while intoxicated created a disturbance at home, was fined $10, half of which was suspended in police court Tuesday. Henry Hardin and Will Brooks, teamsters, charged with fighting, were dismissed, as the evidence showed it to have merely been a wordy war. John George, a plasterer, was fined $10 on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Butler Fillmore, Homer and Wes Hammock and Joe King, all of whom were arrested on suspicion of knowing something regarding a theft which is still being investigated by the police, were released. The mayor expressed regret that they had been held over night, but said when they persisted in the kind of associations they do, such should not be unexpected.

John Clifton and Ed Giffel, two youths beating their way from Columbus to Virginia, whom the police found sitting beside a bonfire near the Reliable Engine company's plant early Tuesday morning, were fined $5 each and ordered put to work on the city prison crew.

Announce Awards

Two residents of Scioto county were included in awards announced Monday by the State Industrial Commission.

Mrs. William Ailles of New Boston, was awarded $2,346.64. It will be recalled that her husband was so badly injured while at work in the Whitaker-Glessner steel plant that he died from his injuries.

Mrs. Andrew Obrosky and five children of Ste wartsville were awarded $2,561.52. Mr. Obrosky was fatally injured while working in the plant of the Whitaker-Glessner Company.

Abandonment Charged.

Walter Ridout was the name of a young man gave, who was arrested Tuesday by Deputy Sheriff Ernest Riekey on a charge of abandoning a legitimate child. Ridout was one of the several who were secretly indicted by the September term of grand jury.

The prisoner was placed in the county jail pending a hearing.

RID STOMACH OF ACIDS, SOURNESS, GAS, INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes upset stomachs feel fine at once.

Acidity, heartburn, belching, pain and dyspepsia just vanish.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion or derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

Another Democratic Campaign Lie Nailed!

Governor Frank B. Willis is a Champion of the Workmen's Compensation Law!

His administration has stood loyally by the measure and the follow excerpts from his address in Portsmouth last Friday night conclusively demonstrate that he has delivered the goods during 21 months of his administration. Concerning the Workmen's Compensation measure he said:

"The Workmen's Compensation Law is today exactly as it was when I went into office. Not a thing changed.

"It will be irrevocably maintained unimpaired throughout my administration. Whoever says I am opposed to the Workmen's Compensation law is telling nothing more than a campaign lie."

An article purported to be an epitome of a speech delivered by William Green, in which he was accused of being friendly to the liability insurance companies was read in part by Gov. Willis.

"I didn't hold any conference with the agents of the liability insurance companies as my opponent did at New Philadelphia. I did not hold a conference with the representatives of the liability insurance companies at Washington, D. C., as my opponent did. Nor did I presume to meet them as he did at his home on East Broad street, Columbus, when section 22 of the Workmen's Compensation law was added which permitted liability insurance companies to write insurance in Ohio.

"I had no dealings with the agents of the liability insurance companies.

"I do say, upon a reliable report, that those gentlemen had a lively interest in the campaign of 1912, who were at this interesting meeting held at New Philadelphia, little later.

"I have charged my opponent twenty times that he recommended section 22, which gives the liability insurance companies the right to write in Ohio. You don't see it denied in any of the accounts of his speeches, do you?

"The Workmen's Compensation law had its inception in the administration preceding but Governor Harmon suggested writing the statute and a Republican general assembly passed it. Judge Wallace Yapple drafted it, but in the bill there was no provision for competitive features until my opponent returned from the conference and he remembered his pledge and recommended it in a message to the general assembly. My opponent had it written into the law.

"Mr. Haynes, Democratic candidate for State Senator says that the Workmen's Compensation Act is in jeopardy if I am re-elected and yet he has never mentioned the Democratic candidate for attorney general, Mr. McGhee, is saying that it is unconstitutional and is now threatening a suit to get judicial interpretation.

"The Democratic party promised to introduce a federal Workmen's Compensation Act but after four years, nothing has been done. They say that in the state it is to be declared unconstitutional.

"We have had control of the administration for 21 months and in that time we have paid out to workmen for injuries received and their beneficiaries, over $4,700,000 and in the two years in which my opponent was in office, $1,700,000 was paid out. In 21 months during the present administration we paid out over $3,000,000 more than the preceding administration. In two years they collected $3,800,000 and in 21 months we collected $6,800,000 and we have increased the reserve fund by $4,000,000."

POLICE GET HIDE THIEVES

Developments came thick and fast Monday night and Tuesday in the wholesale looting of a carload of transient hides on the N. & W. railway two miles north of Vera several days ago.

John Hammock, Taylor Ferguson, Pearl Seth, John Seth and Arthur better known as "Dutch" Bertram, all East End young men, were rounded up Monday evening as suspects and the police officials say that several confessed their guilt.

According to the police the carload of hides which was hauled to New York City was practically emptied of its contents for a mile between Vera and the Tom Noel farm and later gathered up. The thieves had hired a spring wagon without result. Hammock, say the police, has since made a trip to West Virginia and "salted" the money which they say Mr. Labold gave him.

Hammock's relatives have employed Attorney Frank Moulton to defend him.

The police officials also threaten to make it interesting with the hide dealers. The Labold Company, they say, on Monday, sold what hides they had purchased and Azarck had practically completed arrangements Tuesday to ship his portion when Mayor Kaps sent word to him that he would prosecute him if he allowed them to leave the city.

Walter Ick, who has been suffering with blood-poisoning of the hand, caused by a scratch, is better.

Clarence Courtney, a well-known West End painter and paper-hanger, who has been laid up for the past eight days with rheumatism, is now able to be about again with the aid of crutches.

Andrew Glass, vice-president of the Whitaker-Glessner company, continues to improve slowly from an attack of typhoid fever.

Dr. Dan Webster, of Lucasville, Tuesday, received word that his brother-in-law, Dr. Daniel Patterson, aged 91, of Cadmus, Gal-lia county, had suffered a stroke of apoplexy and was in a critical condition.

Mrs. George Schmidt, of Gallia street, has recovered from a week's illness.

Dr. A. G. Stevens of South Webster developed pneumonia Tuesday and his condition is quite serious.

OBITUARY

Valentine Widdig

Valentine Widdig, a well-known local German citizen, passed to his final reward Monday evening at 7 o'clock, following a lingering illness with gastric trouble, for which he had been treated for several weeks by specialists. His death was not unexpected, as he had hovered between life and death for several days. He passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jacob Brunner, of Fifth street.

For forty-six years Mr. Widdig faithfully worked for the Damarin family. Although not employed in the Damarin family for the past seven years, Mr. Widdig stayed at the Damarin home until several weeks ago, when he went to his sister's home.

Valentine Widdig was born at Pine Grove Furnace September 23, 1847. His parents were Frederick and Katherine Widdig.

During his boyhood days he was always known as an apt student, a loyal companion and a faithful friend. He was confirmed at the Lutheran church, Pine Grove, early in life.

When but a young man, he moved to Portsmouth and took employment with Mr. A. M. Damarin.

For the past week Dr. A. Crotti, Columbus specialist, had been here attempting to relieve the sufferings of the late Mr. Widdig without performing an operation. But the case had become too acute and his death soon ensued.

He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Chris, Lucasville; John, Charles, Henry, Mrs. Jacob Brunner, this city; Adam, Sciotoville; George, Lucasville, and Mrs. John Bice, Wheelersburg.

The funeral services are to be conducted from the German Evangelical church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Samuel Lindemeyer will have charge of the services.

Alvia Tackett

Death at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning claimed Alvia Tackett, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tackett, of Harrisonville avenue, New Boston, death coming to the boy at Hempstead hospital.

The deceased was ill two weeks with typhoid fever and only last Saturday was removed to Hempstead hospital. The deceased was bright for his age and attended the New Boston school. He made many friends and playmates who will miss him.

Besides his parents the deceased leaves four sisters, May, Mattie, Berdie and Mary at home, and two brothers, Ollie and Waller, of Firebrick, Ky. The father is employed in the brick yard at Firebrick, Ky. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

James Howard Moore, Jr.

Death plucked a sweet little rose and at 2:15 Tuesday afternoon, when it claimed James Howard, ten months-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, of 1302 Fifth street.

Taken sick with pneumonia Sunday, the baby became so seriously ill that oxygen was administered to it as early as Monday evening in a desperate effort to save its life. It was not to be, however, and the small child passed away this afternoon. James Howard Moore was 10 months old on October 13. He was an unusually pretty and healthy baby, and his sudden call to the Great Beyond comes as a shock to all.

The father and mother, who are grief-stricken over the loss of their loved one, have the sympathy of the community in their hour of deepest bereavement.

Funeral Services

The funeral of Charles Cable took place from the family home on Eleventh street Tuesday afternoon. Rev. B. B. Cartwright, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Burial took place in Greenlawn cemetery.

Diamond Points

BRILLIANCY of a diamond is the very first essential of a really beautiful sparkling diamond. PINE COLOR is next in importance in the beauty of a fine gem. PERFECTION is very essential in the making of quality stones.

The diamonds we show have all passed our critical examination, and must have all the good points in their favor, before we offer them to our customers. We probably show the largest variety of fine diamonds in this vicinity and are in position to offer you gem stones at less than market prices today. Just come in and ask to see diamonds whether you purchase or not, we're pleased to show them. If you select a diamond now we'll reserve it until later for you and you'll save some money on your early selection. You can buy with confidence of us, a concern that has been in business in this city since 1857. If you want something good we've got it.

Local Citizen Balks At Terrible Teddy; Gets Off The Fence

The Enquirer today had the following:
Portsmouth, O., Oct. 23, 1916.
To the Editor of the Enquirer:
John Schwaab made a "German Day" speech here yesterday (Sunday), which was listened to by a goodly number of our German citizens. He spoke both in German and English, and his talk was very interesting, but it was a political speech pure and simple, and under the management of the local Republican officials. I was a close listener, and can agree with all he said but a great many German Democrats were there, and the general comment among them was: Why don't he mention Roosevelt? How can he vote for Hughes and have to "swallow" Roosevelt and all his rabid anti-German ravings? Mr. Schwaab blamed the Wilson administration for not placing an embargo on ammunition—we German sympathizers agree this should have been done—as Schwaab says, for humanity's sake, but say, how many Republican senators and congressmen voted for it? If Hughes had repudiated Roosevelt and all he has said he would have gotten a big German and Irish-American vote; but they are not fooling anybody. The general comment was that they couldn't "swallow" Teddy for fear they would get "sick at the stomach," so they would trust to the present administration to do the right thing by all Americans and "let well enough alone" and vote for Wilson and others, whom we can judge by their past acts. I have been "on the fence" myself, but today is the "bone."

San Felice Standard To Be Maintained, Say Makers

All Dealers Now Sell Famous Cigars At 5c Straight. In Effect Today.

Owing to the greatly increased cost of quality tobaccos, in fact everything pertaining to high grade cigars, the makers of the San Felice cigar, The Delco-Vannor company, have advanced the selling price to the jobbers and dealers, and hereafter this cigar will positively be sold to the consumer at 5 cents straight instead of six for a quarter as previously.
The SAN FELICE is national in its scope and character, having justly attained this eminence through its unequalled excellence. To maintain this unequalled standard of quality, the advance in question is absolutely unavoidable. The generous support of all men using quality cigars is earnestly desired.

Allies' Enthusiasm Gets Setback

Paris, Oct. 24.—The capture of Constanza by the Teutonic Allies, although not expected, nevertheless put a damper on the enthusiasm aroused by the continued progress of the entente allies on the front in Picardy. French commentators do not unduly exaggerate the importance of the achievement of Field Marshal Von Mackensen whose action up to the present time is considered here as a defensive one in shortening his front so as to hold it better with fewer men. They point out that the only way he could do this is to advance, since if he fell back his front on the contrary would be strengthened in so far as he succeeded. These observers say also that if he manages to tie up the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobruja by holding a narrow front slightly south of the railroad he will not be slow to employ his troops thus released to act in direct co-relation with the Austro-German army operating in Transylvania which, they assert is the essential front from which alone Bucharest can be attacked with any chance of decisive success.

Long before that, it is believed here, Rumania with the help of the Allies will be in a position to turn the tables upon its enemies. French critics assert that belief seemingly is justified by the gallant defense the Rumanians are maintaining in the pass of the Carpathians.

London, Oct. 24.—More than a thousand yards of German

Medina, O., Oct. 24.—Col. Myron T. Herrick, Republican candidate for senator, in Medina county speeches Monday declared "that while Democratic leaders realized the great need of a scientific protective tariff to meet European trade competition after the war, the Democratic party has been wedded to a free trade policy so long that they do not dare to revise this policy now."

"A big Democratic manufacturer told me that his party leaders realize that our present prosperity is largely due to war orders and is but temporary in nature," said Col. Herrick. "He said his party had been proclaiming a protective tariff wrong and immoral for so long that even now when they realize the absolute need of protection to meet the fiercer foreign competition in trade after the war, they cannot change the policy they have so long advocated." Col. Herrick told his Monday audiences that the Democrats failed to safeguard American industries against the European competition sure to follow the close of the war by enacting an intelligent protective tariff law until it had been demonstrated by further business depression, and that the Underwood law is a failure. He declared the election of the Republican ticket will be the only way to avoid this demonstration of hard times by Democrats.

Members Of Brotherhoods Resist Orders To Support Wilson, Claims Chairman

New York, Oct. 24.—"Members of the various railroad brotherhoods in many states are resisting the efforts of their national officers to deliver their votes to President Wilson because of his support of the Adamson law. They feel that their officers are attempting to make them mere pawns in the political checkerboard and they refuse to be delivered."

That was the statement made today by Arthur D. Burbank, chairman of the legislative board of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in Illinois. Mr. Burbank, whose duties require him to visit various lodges of his organization, declared that there was a decided trend towards Hughes among railroad men and that it daily is growing stronger as the men have opportunity to study and discuss the so-called eight-hour.

"The sentiment in favor of Wilson is disappearing," said Mr. Burbank, "and the evident attempt of the Grand Lodge officers to influence the membership is reacting. The railroad men as a class are pretty independent in politics and they do not want their officers to tell them how they should vote. The men who have always been Democrats are shouting a little louder than usual on this campaign but the men who have always been Republicans have not changed and are going to vote for Hughes."

"As to the Adamson law, none of our members understand it and are all more or less suspicious of it. Many feel that in departing from the established custom of joint conference and direct wage adjustments, the brotherhoods have made a great mistake. I have found many of our members who are more ready to criticize than to praise our national officers for dragging them into the political arena. The brotherhoods have made substantial progress in the last ten years through their economic forces, and the members feel that all that work has been lost and that wage and working conditions are now merely political issues.

"In the last two weeks I have noticed a decided change in sentiment, especially in Illinois. Our members have not forgotten the conditions which prevailed two years ago, when train crews were laid off by hundreds and thousands. They understand that the present prosperity is temporary, due entirely to the European war and they want to see their bread and butter placed on a firmer foundation. They are afraid that the re-election of Wilson and a Democratic congress will result in a return to the deplorable conditions of two years ago before the war gave a temporary stimulus to industry.

"A recent statement issued by the president of one of the brotherhoods to the effect that the men who do not support Wilson are to be put in the class with men who would stand by the railroads in a strike, has caused a tremendous revolution of feeling and made thousands who were wavering come out openly for Hughes. Any union man with spirit, will resent such a slur.

"It is the first time national officers have attempted to tell how we shall vote and there are thousands like myself, who will not stand for such dictation. I am fully convinced that the sentiment among the railroad men for Hughes is growing stronger every day and when the ballots are counted our national officers will find out that their political activities have been resented by the rank and file."

CONQUERS RHEUMATISM IN A VERY FEW DAYS

It is an established fact that one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma taken once a day has driven the pain and agony from thousands of racked, crippled and despairing rheumatics during the last five years.

Powerful and sure, quick acting, yet harmless, Rheuma gives blessed relief almost at once. The magic name has reached every hamlet in the land and there is hardly a druggist anywhere who cannot tell you of almost marvelous cures.

If you are tortured with rheumatism or sciatica, you can get a bottle of Rheuma from Wurster Bros., or any other druggist for not more than 50 cents, with the understanding that if it does not completely drive rheumatic poisons from your system—money back.

Use Of Money Is The Issue Now

Ohio is won for President Wilson. Every class of citizenship is for the continuance of peace and prosperity. As a prominent eastern newspaper man said: "The only issue the reactionaries who oppose Wilson now have in Ohio is the use of money."

It has leaked out that on Tuesday last the Republican strategy board planned to raise a fund of $600,000 in Ohio. Of this, $200,000 is to come from Cleveland, where already a large corruption fund has been raised and expended. The effort in the use of money is to split the labor vote by the purchase of supposed leaders who are for sale. No attention is to be paid to the corrupt practices act. If the election can be bought those who buy it will escape punishment by controlling the machinery of the law. Those men of money who contribute to the fund will be taking their own chances.

We do not believe that the vote of labor is for sale, but it is well for every laboring man to watch carefully those who approach him and see that he may not be placed under suspicion.

More important than the election of any candidate, no matter how worthy he may be, is the continuance of honesty in elections which has been established in this state by constitutional amendment and legislative action in recent years.

Adamson Act Of Benefit To All

The employers and employees submitted their differences to the President for adjustment. He offered a compromise which the employees accepted, and the employers, under Wall Street pressure, rejected. The country faced a crisis worse than war. The congressional action of the Adamson law was the only solution.

If no trains had moved, no factories would have operated. Inhabitants of cities would have been unable to secure food. All business would have come to a standstill. Riot and bloodshed with untold disorder and revolution might have followed.

To the farmer this act is of special importance. He could not have sold his crops or his fat live stock, because he could not have delivered to a market. Counting on the income received from immediate sales, and not getting it because of the general tieup, he would have suffered irretrievable loss and possible bankruptcy.

President Wilson understood all these things. Understanding, he acted, and moved to save his country from disaster. By his foresight and vision and by his decision prosperity and peace have been continued.

Stand By The President, Says Harmon To Voters

BY KARL K. KITCHEN

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 24.—"It is the patriotic duty of every American citizen to stand by the president in these perilous times. Even if there were a Republican president in the White House at the present time, I would unhesitatingly vote for his re-election and urge everyone to do likewise. Consequently, I am going to vote for Mr. Wilson and do all I can to insure his election."

Judson Harmon, former attorney general of the United States, former governor of Ohio, and the biggest Democratic figure in the middle west, spoke earnestly and with conviction.

"I don't hesitate to say to you," he went on, "that the defeat of President Wilson next month would be a national calamity. This is no time to be a Democrat or a Republican. This is one of the most critical periods in the history of this country, and I repeat it is the patriotic duty of every voter to stand by the president, for a country divided against itself is certain to court disaster."

I found Mr. Harmon in his law office in the St. Paul building in Cincinnati the other morning. I had telephoned to him for an appointment, and when I was announced, he came out of his private office and conducted me to a quiet corner in his law library. He was in his shirt-sleeves—the same condition I had found him when I interviewed him five years ago in the state capitol at Columbus. For Judson Harmon is a hard worker, and when he arrives at his office he "strips for action."

Time has dealt lightly with this sturdy "old line" Democrat. To be sure, he is a little whiter about the temples, but he is as strong and vigorous as ever.

"I've been too busy to take a very active part in the campaign," he said, tilting back his chair and removing the inevitable cigar, which he had almost bitten in two. "You see I have not retired, as many people suppose. In fact, I'm busier than I've ever been."

Just the other day I was directed to the faculty of the Cincinnati Law School, and my duties there, together with my law practice and my receivership of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, leave me very little time for anything else. Still, I'm too old a campaigner not to have heard a little about what is going on."

And what is the middle west going to do in the election? I asked.

"The outlook at the present time is very favorable for Mr. Wilson," he replied without even pausing to reflect on my somewhat vague question. "I believe Mr. Wilson will carry Ohio," he went on. "Of course, I am not a prophet, and I do not want to make any predictions, but I will say that the polls that have been taken throughout the state indicate that Mr. Wilson is very much stronger than Mr. Hughes. I have watched these polls very carefully ever since I ran for governor in 1908, and I have found them remarkably reliable.

"Of course, we've often thought we would carry the state, and didn't, but for the coming election the prospects are unusually bright."

And Indiana and Illinois? I asked.

"I am not so well informed about those states as I am about Ohio, but I have reason to believe that Mr. Wilson's chances in all three states are unusually good. With the campaign entering upon its last days there is a noticeable drift toward President Wilson, rather than the Democratic party. That President Wilson is far stronger than his party is disclosed in nearly every poll that has been taken in the middle west. And in Ohio, as I pointed out before, Wilson is particularly strong."

But what about the Progressives? I asked, for I remembered that while Mr. Wilson got the solid electoral vote of Ohio four years ago, the combined popular vote cast for Taft and Roosevelt was in round numbers 33,000 more than the popular vote cast for Wilson.

"A large proportion of the Progressives at the last election were Democrats, and I believe they will vote for Mr. Wilson in November. The Republicans point to the result in Maine with a great deal of satisfaction, but one state does not point the way for forty-seven others. The result in Maine was not conclusive."

"I remember when Maine went Democratic back in 1880. I was returning from a hunting trip in the southwest when I heard the news. We had a great celebration, and I recall throwing my hat in the air and firing off several cannons in honor of the event. But the Republicans carried the country on election day. No. Maine is only one state—remember that."

But California? I protested. How do you account for the Progressive endorsement of Governor Hiram Johnson?

"Well, California's a queer state," the former attorney general admitted with a laugh. "I never have been able to make anything out of it. There are different kinds of Progressives in the middle west."

"I think the majority of the voters out here—in Ohio, particularly—feel the way I do. This is not the time to change administrations, regardless of the faults one has to find with the present one. President Wilson has accomplished the one thing that everybody wants—peace. His methods may not have met with approval on all sides, but the result is the thing to be considered."

at the present time. The people of great war are standing by their governments, and it is our patriotic duty to do likewise.

"It would be extremely dangerous to have our country in the hands of a discredited administration for four months—yet that is what will happen if Mr. Wilson is defeated in November. Events happen rapidly these days, and with a repudiated president in the White House a dire calamity might overtake the country before the installation of the new administration."

"There are many people who do not realize what a critical situation this country has been in and still is in. It is easy to say, 'If so and so had been president this would have happened or that would not have happened.' It is extremely easy to criticize and to argue what someone else might have done is pretty poor."

"Results are what count. We've always been told that prosperity came with Republican administrations, panics and adversity with a Democratic president in the White House. Yet the panic of 1907 occurred in President Roosevelt's administration, and now we are enjoying the greatest prosperity in our entire history under a Democratic administration. You can't fool voters today with that old legend—they know too much."

"To be sure, the Republicans say: 'If it were not for the war, we wouldn't be enjoying this prosperity, but you'll notice there is always the 'if' in their arguments along this line. Prosperity is here—it is real and it is here to stay and all the 'ifs' don't change it in the slightest."

"What is your opinion of President Wilson's Mexican policy?" I interrupted.

"I don't know that I'd call it a policy, do you?" he replied with a hearty chuckle. "But we've always had more or less trouble with Mexico—it's nothing new." The former attorney general's face became serious again as he went on.

"The Mexican problem is a real problem, and it is far from being solved. Still, it is not of as great importance as our foreign problem. A citizen can disagree with Mr. Wilson's Mexican policy and yet support him. Here again it is extremely easy to criticize."

"And the Adamson eight-hour law—how will that affect the voters?"

"As I am the receiver of the C. & D. and more or less in the railroad business, I'd rather not discuss the eight-hour law for publication. I will say, however, that it probably will make as many votes for the administration as it will lose."

"Whatever opinion one may have of the president's action, there is no doubt that he averted a dangerous situation. Just think what a great railroad strike would have meant to the country and then remember that Mr. Wilson prevented it. I am confident that labor will remember him at the polls. I pointed that out when I seconded his nomination at St. Louis last summer."

"The point is this, we must put aside personal as well as party prejudices in this national campaign. It is not necessary for us to approve everything that the present administration has done. We must support the present administration for the sake of our country. Unprecedented conditions have arisen as a result of the European war."

"A country divided against itself would court disaster. Accordingly, I say stand by the president. That is what I am going to do and I believe my state will do likewise."

Cliff Dickerson Is Held Responsible For Death

Following an inquest held by him Tuesday morning Coroner Dr. J. W. Daehler held Clifford Dickerson responsible for the recent death of a fellow shoe worker, Charles Joseph, Jr.

Oscar Gyor, Frank Crabtree, Russell Brewer, Joseph Fischer and Floyd Schroeder were the witnesses examined by the coroner. All are employed in the packing room at the upper Irving Drey shoe factory, where the fatal assault occurred. All gave the opinion that Dickerson started

An Easy Way To Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomachs or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient.

Fisher and Streich and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied as per the guarantee found in every package.

Fatal Quarrel Started Over Who Accompanied Girl Home

The trouble which led to the fatal shooting of Floyd Stulz, 23, farmer, by Ben Jackson, 33, farmer, both of near Latham, Pike county, Sunday evening, was over Della Gragg, according to information received by the Pike county authorities Tuesday. Ben Jackson had taken Della and Mary Gragg, two sisters, to the Sunday evening services at the Fairmount church. After the services the party started down the road toward the Gragg home. Floyd Stulz and Frank Carter, two young men, followed, it is said, and trouble ensued. Just within the Gragg yard, Jackson and Stulz quarreled over Della Gragg. Both claimed that they were accompanying her home. Without an exchange of blows, it is said, Jackson pulled a 32-calibre revolver and fired at Stulz, striking him in the stomach. The wound produced death almost instantly. Jackson is still confined in the county jail. He has not been formally charged with the crime, nor has a date for a preliminary hearing been set.

Appraising Property
Messrs. Jacob P. Kindeis, Henry Ruel and Rudy Komitz, who were appointed by Judge T. C. Beatty, of the probate court, to appraise the property of the saloon firm of York & Haus at New Boston, began their inventory Tuesday. Mrs. Thomas York was appointed administratrix of her late husband's estate and Judge A. T. Holcomb is her attorney.

Board of Control Meets
The board of control aside from formally awarding a contract to George White for the removal of earth at Danmarin Hill to eliminate the rutted road, transacted only routine business at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday morning.

Ohio State Has Chance To Win Conference Honor This Year

With the dreaded Illinois game now turned into one of the landmarks of Ohio State football history, followers of Coach Wilcox's squad are already figuring on the chances the boys have for the title. True, they are now included in that narrowing list of possibilities in the Western conference, but four teams still being in the race in Ohio State, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Western sporting critics do not seem to think much of Iowa's chances, the Hawkeyes not showing the form that is needed to carry them into the title position. Wisconsin—there is the big if on the State schedule. But the gods have favored the Scarlet and Gray lads. Next Saturday is an open date in the list and the Badgers are playing at Chicago. The Maroons were given a 10-0 thrashing by Northwestern Saturday and are ready for another "comeback."

The latter trim Minnesota and Chicago, or if Chicago and the Gophers should fall before the Illinois and State come close against Wisconsin—there is nothing to it but a clean title for the big institution on the North Side of Columbus. State, as stated above, has next week while Chicago and Wisconsin, battle at Madison, one advantage for the Badgers. Iowa and Minnesota settle their differences at Minneapolis. Schedule favors Ohio State. Illinois and Minnesota will hook up at Minneapolis on Nov. 4, the same date Wisconsin plays in Columbus. Following the Wisconsin game State has an open date before meeting Minnesota at Minneapolis. In nearly every way it seems that all the schedule breaks are working toward the Ohio State angle. Each team has an open date before coming into the crucial game that will make or break its chances for the Western Conference title. Following the Wisconsin game State meets three more teams, Indiana, Case and Northwestern. The two "Big Nine" teams are met on Ohio Field and Case Reserve is the guest of Heidelberg at Tiffin, Wittenberg and Wilmington get together at Springfield, while Cincinnati imports Kentucky State for a tie in the interscholastic field there is but one game in Columbus, South and North having their annual battle on Ohio Field.

University entertains Kenyon at Athens, Reserve is the guest of Heidelberg at Tiffin, Wittenberg and Wilmington get together at Springfield, while Cincinnati imports Kentucky State for a tie in the interscholastic field there is but one game in Columbus, South and North having their annual battle on Ohio Field.

P. H. S. Wants Game For Next Saturday

Unless a game can be booked with Chillicothe, Athens or St. Albans, W. Va. the Portsmouth high school warriors will not have a scheduled game for next Saturday. The management of the Ashland high school eleven cancelling their game to have been played in Ashland next Saturday.

The Ashland team has been disbanded, the team failing to turn in a victory so far this season. The coach of the Ashland eleven had little or no material from which to form a fair team and it was decided to disband instead of having a team that would not bring some little honor to the school. Coach Buckler has written to the three above mentioned towns, asking for a game there or here. If a game is not

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 30.

Tongs, Ky.—Miss Dolly Wise—I am a daily reader of your letters. I see where you have helped others and I want to ask you a favor. Will you please print a recipe in tonight's paper how to make sweet mangoes? It will be highly appreciated.

WANT TO KNOW.
This is the only recipe I have for canning mangoes: Soak in salt water and can in pure cider vinegar.

Dear Dolly—When was Ohio taken into the Union?
STUDENT.
February 19, 1903.

Dear Dolly—What can a girl do to make herself talk only when she is supposed to. People tell me I have "running off of the mouth" because I say things when I shouldn't.
WORRIED GIRL.

As you grow older you will show better judgment in what you say. Do the best you can and don't worry about it.

Dear Dolly—I would like for you

Knocks Obsolete Coughs in a Hurry
A Simple Home-Made Remedy that Gets at the Cause.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hacking or bronchial cough year after year, disturbing their sleep and making life disagreeable. It is no wonder, therefore, that they are looking for a remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the cough thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also promptly lessens a dry or tight cough, stops the troublesome, throat tickle, soothes the irritated membrane that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relieves cough almost immediately. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma there is nothing better. It tastes pleasant and keeps perfectly.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with glycerol and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN

A PRACTICAL AND EASILY DEVELOPED OUTFIT

1795. This combination includes a simple one-piece dress, a comfortable undershirt or petticoat, and one-piece drawers. The dress is good for all wash fabrics, and also for serge and other woolsens. In checked blue gingham with bands of white linen or dotted percale with braid trimming, it will make a very serviceable play dress. The undershirt is composed of a long-waisted body to which a straight skirt is gathered. The drawers are simple, with side seams only, thus insuring ease and comfort in wearing. The pattern includes all three garments. It is cut in 5 sizes: 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 years. It requires ½ yard for the drawers, 1½ yard for the undershirt, and 2½ yards for the dress, of 36-inch material, for a 4-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

COUPON

This pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents. Make number, name, address, etc. plain. Send to Pattern Department, Portsmouth Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

sense. There's one chance in a million that your marriage would be happy. Probably you're a good gambler and willing to take the chance. But you must look farther ahead than the gratification of your own whims. There may be other little lives entrusted to your care, when you are married, you know, and if you make a failure of your life through such a marriage, it is just to make anyone else suffer? If you are serious—and I hope you are not—you are very childish and selfish. I am sure you don't care for the young man you are going with now. It is just another evidence of your selfishness. You don't want him, and you don't want anyone else to have him. If I were you I'd get the idea that this is a big "error" would be left alone in, out of my head. I think it's a pretty friendly old world, myself. Interest yourself in some kind of work. Do something that's worth while. You're living in a little sphere about as big as a dollar. If you would spend more of your time thinking and planning to make life easier for others, you would have less time to worry about your own fate. No girl with a speck of self-respect is going to marry for a home alone. Marriage isn't a lark. It's a life job, and a very serious one at that. The foundation stones in every happy marriage are love and respect. Without them you are building upon something that is unsafe and bound to crumble sooner or later. Go to work, my dear girl, if you are not already employed; be charitable, and live not with that "me" constantly in your mind, but for the good you can do for others. You will be infinitely more happy if you do. Write me again in a couple of weeks and let me know how you are getting along with your love affairs.

Section One of Many church will give an oyster supper Thursday evening, October 26th, in the church basement, beginning to serve at 5 o'clock.

REAL HAIR SAVER

Found at Last. Shows Results in Three Days says Local Druggist

If you are rapidly losing your hair and fear baldness Fieber and Streich invite you to make a three days' test of Parisian Sage. If it does not stop the excessive loss of hair they will return your money. Hundreds of men and women have written telling of the phenomenal results obtained by using Parisian Sage. People who were bald say they now glory in their beautiful hair. Others who have had dandruff for years say they get a clean, healthy scalp after just a few applications of this splendid treatment.

No matter whether you are bothered with falling hair, prematurely gray hair, dry, dull and brittle hair, oily, greasy, stringy hair, dandruff or itching scalp, this well-known local firm invites you to try Parisian Sage at their risk. If your hair is worth saving, Parisian Sage is worth trying, and a large bottle is inexpensive.

played violin numbers very well; Miss Agnes Schenck, who also rendered her selection well; and the two piano pieces by Mrs. C. Hansen, Miss Margaret Goltz, Miss Norma Potry and Miss Louise Balmer were pretty and very well rendered, the entire program being exceptionally good. The next program will be in charge of Miss Edna Wilhelm.

FACTS VERSUS FICTION

Are YOU letting the Democratic campaign leaders do YOUR thinking,
Or have YOU a mind of YOUR own?

Does any REASONING man believe the present over-stimulation of American industries is due to anything OTHER THAN the European war?

Before the War Under Democratic Tariff Regulations Remember
Thousands of Ohio men were jobless.
Hundreds of factories were closed.
Thousands of families in want.
Cities issued special relief bonds.
Soup kitchens and bread lines established.
Relief commissions overtaxed.

A vote for the Republican candidates is insurance against a return to this condition when the toxic effect of the war is eliminated from the veins of American industries.

The Democratic fiction writers and the talented talking machines, wound up at Washington, are monotonously repeating, "He kept us out of war," "Eight-hour day" and referring to the president as the greatest statesman of all history.

What war did Mr. Wilson keep us out of?

Who gets the 8-hour day?

In an address to Congress the president himself referred to the European war as "a war with which we have nothing to do, a war whose causes do not touch us." So how could he keep us out of a war with which we have nothing to do, and whose causes do not touch us? Surely the Democrats do not mean that Mr. Wilson kept us out of the European war.

Did he keep us out of war with Mexico?

According to war department records HE DID NOT. During the term of President Wilson more Americans have been killed by Mexicans and more American property destroyed by Mexicans than were killed or destroyed by Spaniards during the Spanish-American war. So if Mr. Wilson did not keep us out of war with Europe or out of conflict with Mexico, what war did he keep us out of?

AND THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

President Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, has just admitted that the people might have been misled in the matter of the Adamson eight-hour law, which he admits is not an eight-hour law, but LEGISLATION TO GIVE THE RAILROAD MEN HIGHER WAGES.

It is simply a matter of fact versus fiction. Your ballot will show your choice.

Elect the Republican Ticket and Insure Permanent Prosperity.

G. O. P. WILL RUN A SPECIAL TO COLUMBUS

A special train over the Norfolk and Western railroad, leaving the city at two o'clock, Monday afternoon, October 30, has been arranged by the Executive Committee of this county. This train will take a crowd of local Republicans to Columbus where they will participate in the huge torch-light parade which will be held in honor of Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president.

The River City Band has been engaged to make the trip with the local Republicans.

Every member of the Scioto County Republican Club is asked by John F. Eckhart, chairman of the County Executive committee to make an effort to go on the trip.

"The first hundred to guarantee the train were easy to secure," said Mr. Eckhart Tuesday, "but we want several hundred to make the trip. We are promised one of the biggest torch-light parades that has ever been held in Columbus and Mr. Hughes will deliver a speech. The special will not leave for home until the festivities there are over."

All Republicans and members of the club are expected to notify headquarters of their intentions or see some of the members of the executive committee.

MR. RAAB WAS OLDEST CITIZEN PRESENT

Fine Gain Shown

The official parcel post count for the first fifteen days in October, which was completed recently by Superintendent of Mail W. J. Gruber, shows a substantial gain over the same period of last year.

During this period, 6639 parcel post packages were received and 5555 were sent out. These figures are from this city weighed 17,657 pounds and 15 ounces. The postage on the outgoing packages amounted to $346.51.

The largest package received weighed 45 pounds and the smallest one ounce.

The largest number of packages mailed go to the second zone. In all there were 1644 mailed to points in this zone.

Almost ten times as many packages are mailed to local points from out of the city than mailed to the same points from this city. In all there were 39 packages mailed from Portsmouth to points near Portsmouth.

Boy Scout News

Great Meeting In East End

The East End Scouts of Troop 8 met in social session last night at the home of Scout Frank Davis, 1309 Center street. The event was the celebration of the host's seventeenth birthday. The first part of the evening's program was devoted to the transaction of important business in which two additional patrol leaders were elected for 1916-17. The new patrol leaders are Harold Bierley and Harold Cummins. Sectional conferences of the four patrols of the troop were then held, and reports submitted later on in the evening. Corwin Knowles, Scout Scribe, made an appeal for memberships for the First Class Fraternity, asking that this troop furnish four new members for the First Class rank before the Fraternity's next meeting. Frank Davis gave an interesting report on the troop's athletic activities, which showed that two teams will represent this progressive troop in basketball the coming winter. Three new members were received: Floyd Bayer, Charles Buckley and Raymond Souders. At the close of this program the boys enjoyed a splendid party given by the young host. At the close of a very delightful program of music by Miss Alma Davis, Miss Marsh and Mr. Prince, refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Davis, mother of the host. The following were present: M. H. F. Kinsey, Richard Boyd, L. C. Murphy, Maurice Mentel, Merrill Marsh, Darsie Hamilton, Carl Edwards, Arthur Eisenhaug, Corwin Knowles, James Scott, Glenn Moore, Marvin Putzke, Joe Davis, Jacob Pfau, Charles Crabtree, Philip Knauis, Raymond Russell, Don Russell, Denver Dougherty, Jennings Dodge, Glenn Harley, Harold Bierley, Harold Dunn, Kenneth Davis, Charles Buckley, Floyd Baer, Carl Walker and Russell Williams.

Troop One Tonight

Troop One will meet promptly at 7:30 this evening at the First Presbyterian church in charge of Scoutmaster H. W. Wagner. This is patrol formation night and every boy should be present to learn what patrol he is assigned to for the coming year.

Basketball Tonight

The following Boy Scout basketball games are scheduled tonight: Eagles vs Covenanters; East End vs Tigers; Reds vs Grays. All three games will be fast and all scouts are invited. The first game will start promptly at 7:15 p. m.

Troop Nine Notice

Troop 9 will meet this evening at the U. B. church at 7:00 o'clock. Mr. C. W. Ridenour will be present with one of his good talks for the boys. Let all be out. ROBERT SCHMIDT, Scribe.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

Try Oil of Korsein to Keep Weight Down, or to Reduce Superfluous Fat

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result. If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who is satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout are advised to go to a good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korsein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, digestion and a return of the old energy; footsteps become lighter, and the skin less flabby in appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of Korsein is inexpensive, cannot injure, helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce their weight 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

MILLER'S ANTISEPTIC OIL KNOWN AS

Snake Oil

MOST WONDERFULLY PENETRATING, PAIN RELIEVING AND HEALING OIL KNOWN.

It has just been discovered that this oil is a wonderful cure remedy. You don't even have to take off your shoe; just pour a few drops of the oil on the shoe over the corn and it goes creeping and crawling down into the corn, and the corn disappears like magic. It dissolves the callous, thus giving you permanent relief, and the corn will never return. For any kind of an ache or pain this oil is said to be without an equal. For Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Stomach, Sore Throat, Toothache, Headache, Rheumatism, Swollen Joints, and for Sore Eyes, Throat, Croup and Diphtheria, it has been found most effective. It is a doctor's shop within itself and should be in every home. Accept no substitute. There is nothing like it. This oil is gold in red only. Every bottle guaranteed. 25 and 50 cent bottles, or money refunded by leading druggists. Geo. W. Freund, Corner Gallia and Ohio streets.

SEWED UP CHICKEN'S HEAD WITH PINK SILK

Chauflleur Frank Luther relates a strange story about how several Portsmouth girls did the Good Samaritan act while out to Pond Creek on a visit last week. They had taken a fancy to a young chicken and were just getting it tamed, when one day a shepherd pup, no doubt out of sheer jealousy, attacked the pet chicken and chewed off part of its head. The girls sewed up the mutilated head with pink silk and the chicken is still living.

SHERIFF CLEARS INNOCENT MAN; ARRESTS GUILTY ONE

The diligence of Sheriff E. W. Smith brought to light a case of mistaken identity Tuesday, after which four indictments resting against Charles Hill, a stranger in this city, were nollied by Judge Thomas, common pleas court, upon the request of the state attorney and the young man was released from custody.

During the second week in August two checks were forged and passed by a young man signing his name as Harry Malone. Each check was for $4.50. One was passed at the Biggs house saloon and the other at Capt. Winters' saloon.

Sheriff E. W. Smith immediately got in touch with the case and

FIGURES SHOW THE CITY HAS 35,000 POPULATION

Registration figures are always regarded as concrete evidence of a city's growth.

Based on a ratio of five to one, Portsmouth now has a population of approximately 35,000.

The registration figures for 1916, as filed with the election board Monday, were 6,310. They probably will reach 7,000 by the time those who have been out of the city, or were too ill to register, are equipped with their voting credentials at the election hour.

Within the past 20 years, or from 1896 to 1916, Portsmouth has gained 5,041 in registration, which means 15,000 in population during this period.

In 1896 the total registration was 5,789 and in 1916 it is 6,310.

The registration figures for presidential elections from 1896 to 1916 follow:

1896	3708
1900	4453
1904	4981
1908	5693
1912	6012
1916	6310

DOCTORS ALSO TAKING KINDLY TO NERV-WORTH

Read What Huntington Physician Said of This Wonderful Family Nerve Tonic

Wherever Nerv-Worth has been introduced it has gained recognition in medical circles as well as in the home. Persons on the inside have been surprised at the number of cases in which Nerv-Worth has been prescribed by physicians whose knowledge of this tonic's power over nervous ills has prompted them to use it for their patients. A pointer to this effect appears in the endorsement printed below. It comes from Dr. N. B. Ferguson, a well known practicing physician of Huntington, W. Va. The following are the doctor's own exact words:

"Nerv-Worth is truly a great remedy. I have tested it professionally in my practice and actually and practically in my family. It gives me pleasure to recommend it to the profession and also to the general public. It in my opinion will prove a great boon to sufferers from the troubles for which it is intended, to be an ameliorative remedy." N. B. FERGUSON.

This great boon is now within easy reach of all the people of Portsmouth and vicinity. The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy is now the Mecca for local victims of nervous disorders, for here Nerv-Worth is on sale and here and Demonstrator Lawyer is ready with his free sample doses to show callers what Nerv-Worth looks and tastes like.

Your dollar back at Fisher & Streich's if Nerv-Worth fails to help you.

Mr. Davidson Rests Well After Accident

W. N. Nat Davidson, former chief of police, who shot off his left hand Monday morning when an automatic Remington 12 gauge shotgun was accidentally discharged, rested well at Hempstead hospital last night and probably will be able to be taken to the home of his son-in-law, Rawley Moorhead of High street tonight.

Mr. Davidson had placed the gun on the seat of his automobile and as he climbed in the gun fell to the floor and he grabbed for it. In some manner the trigger was snapped and he received the contents of the gun in his left hand, it being torn to shreds. Amputation of the hand at the wrist was made by Dr. L. G. Locke.

Mr. Davidson was waiting for his son-in-law to join him and he thought that he had removed all the shells out of the gun before putting it in the machine.

HUGHES vs. WILSON

WHICH IS SINCERE?
FOR LABOR AGAINST LABOR

IT IS TIME TO THINK!

HUGHES

Mr. Hughes' position on labor, taken from Legislative Labor News of October 10, 1910:
GOV. HUGHES, GREATEST FRIEND OF LABOR
The Legislative Labor News, of New York, October 10, 1910, had the following:

"Now that Governor Hughes has retired from politics and ascended to a place on the highest judicial tribunal in the world, the fact can be acknowledged without hurting anybody's political corns, that he was the greatest friend of labor laws that ever occupied the governor's chair at Albany. During his two terms he has signed 56 labor laws, including among them the best labor laws ever enacted in this or any other state. He also urged the enactment of labor laws in his message to the legislature, even going so far as to place the demand for a labor law in one of his messages to an extra session of the legislature.

"Only 182 labor laws have been enacted in this state since its erection in 1777—in 133 years. One-third of these, exceeding in quality all of the others, has been enacted and signed during Governor Hughes' term of three years and nine months.

"With such a record of approval and suggestion of progressive legislation in the interest of humanity to his credit, it is easy to believe that human rights will have a steadfast and sympathetic upholder in the justice of the Supreme Court of the United States."

WILSON

President Wilson's position on labor when an election was not at hand:
AGAINST THE UNION SHOP

President Wilson's Position on Labor, as Reported in Collier's Weekly:
(Extract from a Baccalaureate Sermon of June 13, 1909, by Prof. Woodrow Wilson).

You know what the usual standard of the employee is in our day. It is to give as little as he may for his wages. Labor is standardized by the trade union, and this is the standard to which it is meant to conform. No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do. In some trades and handicrafts no one is suffered to do more than the least skillful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor, and no one can work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the minimum.

I need not point out how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. The labor of America is rapidly becoming unprofitable under its present regulation by those who have determined to reduce it to a minimum. Our economic supremacy may be lost, because the country grows more and more full of unprofitable servants.

Extract from a letter of Woodrow Wilson dated January 12, 1909, in reply to an invitation to speak at a banquet of anti-strike and anti-boycott advocates:

"I am a fierce partisan of the open shop and everything that makes for individual liberty, and I should like to contribute anything that might be possible for me to contribute to the clarification of thinking and the formation of right purposes in matters of this kind."

At a dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria on March 18, 1907, Dr. Woodrow Wilson spoke as follows:

"We speak too exclusively of the capitalistic class. There is another as formidable an enemy to equality and freedom of opportunity as it is, and that is the class formed by the labor organizations and leaders of the country."

We reprint them here because they have an important bearing on the questions whether the Democratic administration, in what it did during the last week in August, was actuated by sincerity of a life-long conviction.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS BEFORE MAYOR; EDITOR IN BUNCH

Quite an array of witnesses was examined by Mayor H. H. Kaps Monday evening in hearing the case of H. T. Walker, a chauffeur for Grocer J. B. Thomas, of New Boston, whom John Vogt charged with violating the traffic laws.

The filing of the affidavit against the young man was the sequel to a collision between the car which he was driving and a touring car that Mrs. Vogt was driving, in front of the Sugar Bowl, corner Gallia and Findlay streets recently. Mrs. Vogt's car crashed into the rear of the other but she contended that she was on the right side of the street and was driving slowly but that Thomas drove in right ahead of her. The mayor reserved his decision in the case.

Vallee Harold, one of the editors of The Times, and Messrs. Leslie C. Turley and Joseph Loviner were also before the mayor for alleged traffic violations. The former was accused of not carrying a rear license tag on his car. It developed that his colored chauffeur had lost the tag but had neglected to mention the fact to his employer and later some boy had found it. The boy demanded fifty cents reward which the chauffeur was unable to pay at the time but he got the tag from the boy the next day though he did not place it back on the machine. Mr. Harold also told the court that he was unaware of his car having been out on the day referred to. "You better keep a line on your chauffeur or you'll likely experience what I did and some day find your car ditched and wrecked," said the mayor.

Mr. Loviner and Mr. Turley were reminded of the law regarding the transfer of license tags in trades or sales of cars. Mr. Loviner it seems had traded a roadster to Mr. Turley for his touring car and no change was made in the license tags. In looking up numbers Sunday to determine the owner of a car that had been left standing on the wrong side of the street Sunday Chief Clark found that it was Mr. Loviner but that the car was still listed in Mr. Turley's name. Mr. Turley told the court that he at the time had told Mr. Loviner and Harry Howe to attend to the changing of the tags. All of the cases were dismissed by the mayor.

Another Officer Turns In Badge

Patrolman A. C. Richmond resigned from the police force Monday evening, giving as his reason that he did not find the work to his liking. He has several offers under consideration but will first take a few weeks' rest. Before entering the police service he was employed for four years as switchman in the N. & W. yards at East Portsmouth and previously had express and baggage runs between Portsmouth and Cincinnati for ten years.

He is the fourth policeman to turn in his badge and mace within the past few weeks. Other policemen who resigned were Templeman, Albrecht and Nance.

VOLA-VITA

A Wonderful Hair Grower

Five great elements compose healthy hair—oxygen, nitrogen, carbon, hydrogen, sulphur. When, for any reason, the follicles are starved or deprived of any of these, the hair turns gray or falls out.

VOLA-VITA is a scientific preparation that supplies these elements to the hair roots. Thus, naturally, hair is grown on bald heads, falling hair is stopped, gray hair is restored to its youthful color, dandruff is stopped. VOLA-VITA contains no alcohol, because alcohol, while falsely stimulating, burns out and kills the hair roots.

Vola-Vita is sold and guaranteed by all good druggists and the Vola-Vita Mfg. Co., Chicago, Ill., is a fact.

AN UNUSUAL SHOWING

In former campaigns, and it bobs up now every once in a while, it was the common charge that the Democrats did not know how to run the government. May be they don't, may be they don't, but just now they seem to be making a pretty fair stagger at it anyway. For instance there is the postoffice, which has been a chronic source of deficit ever since it was established, that is until the present Postmaster General Burleson took charge. He has made it different. His consistency has been for economy and efficiency. We believe the public will agree that there has been a decided improvement in service, brought about largely through the conviction driven into the minds of employees that the administration wanted service from them and not their jobs. Economy is vividly portrayed in the state of mind of the treasurer of the United States, who on receiving a check, the other day, from General Burleson for $5,200,000, excess earnings of the postoffice department for the year ending July 1, wrote him: "The treasury department has experienced the sensation of receiving a postal surplus, but there are times in its existence only three times, and those three times have been during the administration of President Wilson." Startling indeed, and all the more so when we take into consideration that heretofore annual postal deficits have run anywhere from thousands of dollars up to as high as seventeen million.

THE TALES THAT ARE TOLD

The German authorities have suppressed the Tages Post, a Stettin paper, for publishing the statement that "the submarine Bremen was torpedoed in an American port, after having safely passed the Irish coast and abandoned all the armaments of the British."

One wonders why such utterly baseless rumors find circulation to say nothing of belief, but, after all, it isn't so incredulous as human nature goes. Intemperateness of both the partisans of Germany and her enemies in this country breed such allegations that in a calmer state of mind would not find none of character to give them some standing. Such incidents, however, increase the admiration of the poise and fairness that President Wilson has shown in handling delicate foreign complications, made personally irritating by unjust and ungenerous criticism and heated declamation, tending to inflame the public mind, aggravated instance of which was furnished but recently in the outbreak of Theodore Roosevelt on the ravages of a German submarine off the American coast. Roosevelt was for war and reprisal then and there. But what was there to war about, what aggravation was there calling for reprisal. Six ships of neutral powers were blown up in the North Sea, Sunday. Certainly that was none of America's business. So far as the law of nations and the high seas go no more was the blowing up of neutral ships in the Atlantic ocean her business. The submarine operated outside the three mile limit, to which extent any nation with a sea coast is given jurisdiction. So thirty miles off coast is just as much on the high seas as is three hundred miles away. To have taken affront at the actions of the German submarine under established conditions would have been precipitating a quarrel of the baldest pretext. Such a pretense may have been assumed sufficient for one who wants to fight for the sake of fighting alone, or loves to war with the jawbone, but it is not justifiable to the calm, patient, wise man in whose hands the nation is fortunate in having its desire for peace and honorable peace reposing in these exigent times.

NO: EVER THAT NAME

The term United States is cumbersome and there is much complication grammatically in its use, while America is a designation claimed by two continents and it isn't exactly seemly, it would seem, that one particular nation should claim it as its own name. Considering this some one is forward with the suggestion that these United States be called Unistat, a sort of dog- Latin for a republic of states. It will never do. The word is worse than grotesque, it has an effeminate ring, a sort of airy, fairy Lillian suggestion, as it were. Let the double name stand as it is, the constitutional and the common, The United States and American. No breath is wasted in saying United States. It is as pregnant of meaning as are the bars and stars on the flag emblematical of the foundation and growth of the several parts and the nation as a whole. As for America it is known and accepted all the world over. At home and abroad it has had for a hundred years its peculiar meaning, the home of the free and the land of the brave. It is only during campaign that we appear to forget what it is and acclaim perforce what it isn't. She was never more America in fact and deed than she is today. Her homes are free from wreck of cannon and shell, her wives and daughters are not in lamentation over the death and maiming of father and brother by shot and bomb, her people are brave enough to keep one powerful nation at honorable peace. America the example and aspiration of the world. Let the name stand and be spoken with pride and thanksgiving so long as nations shall exist and men love right above gain, justice above might.

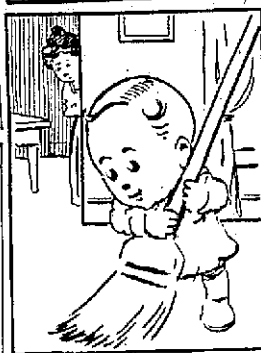

Wheat doesn't mean to let bread gain anything on it, judging by the way it is jumping up.

May be the concessions from one side to the other are like those European victories, they sort of balance up the claims.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 24.—Bus boys in the large New York hotels are to get their first taste of American culture through the munificence of the New York Board of Education. They are to be boarded upward on their path to becoming tuxedoed waiters and looking askance at the meagre tips through the continuation school plan.

The first class under the direction of Mrs. Florence Engle, of the public schools, met at the Majestic this morning at 10 o'clock. They are to be boarded upward on their path to becoming tuxedoed waiters and looking askance at the meagre tips through the continuation school plan.

They have individual desks, with slates and sponges. (The sponge is not significant.) They are taught to pronounce words, to read, and ethics—which means politeness.

Nicholas Popolous was asked to write a word on the blackboard. He wrote it. It spelled "Tip."

"What have you written?" asked the teacher.

"What nobody ever gives me," he replied.

But in a few short years Nicholas will no doubt be getting his share of tips for most of the Broadway waiters started in as bus boys and many of them now ride around in limousines and have beautiful homes in the country.

Oscar, of the Waldorf, who started as a bus boy, is soon to retire to his country place with a fortune that is said to be in the millions.

A family of newly riches who came from the social ooze of the oil fields of Oklahoma have caused a great stir along the exclusive sections of Fifth Avenue by buying ground for the erection of a palace which will be a cross between the Temple of Karnak and the Grand Central Station.

It is their intention, it is said, to bust right into society, and the upper circles are fearing they will, for the man of the house has a bank account that will produce the wallop. They started off by entertaining Bohemia in the magenta and gold dining saloon, but now they are entertaining some of the fringes of society.

The fear is that soon they will be entertaining social leaders. The head of the family has joined a Fifth Avenue club and has secured a box for the opera. Bets are being made in social circles as to whether or not they will get in the inner circles. The odds favor them.

It is a far cry from catching rats in a cellar in Scotland to becoming a petted darling on Fifth Avenue, but the Scottish terrier has accomplished it. The terrier is becoming the last word in dogs and the price for them is going upward steadily. Instead of feeling on rats he now eats creamed scallops and marrons glaces and wears diamond studded collars.

Dog fanciers claim that the Scottish terrier is far more popular this winter than the Pekingese. And the Peking is of royal birth, too. His forbears for years occupied an important place in the golden palace of the Chinese Emperors.

The Boston bull is next in the point of popularity. His price has doubled and by next winter many believe he will be the most popular of all.

New York women who reside on Riverside Drive have organized to save Riverside Park. They claim that the railroad that has tracks along it is despoiling the beauty of the park and that the odor from the and Austrians, who have been in this live stock cars is almost unbearable.

The railroad has half way consented to a plan to lower the tracks, but the blasting would go on for about 10 years and this, the women claim, would be as much of a nuisance as the other annoyances.

But bide your time, you fellows,
'Till jurors they become;
Our court-rooms may be dull and drear,
But they will make things hum!

Just think how much discussion
There'll be until they find
What costume for the jury box
Is just the proper kind.

And think what gleeful moments
There'll be for all of us
When twelve fair jurors hand the court
A verdict running thus:

"We know he chokes his mother
And beats her when she cries,
But, Judge, you'd better let him off,
He has such darling eyes."

Yes, changes strange and divers
Will come, but just the same
Our lives will be more spicy when

CARRANZA FORCE LED INTO TRAP

BRITISH SMASH GERMAN LINES

VILLA UP TO OLD TRICKS

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—Francisco Villa led the Carranza guard under General Carlos Ojuna into an ambush between Santa Isabel and San Andres on the western division of the Mexico Northwestern railroad Friday, was reported by the federal department agents here today.

Villa retreated from a position outside of Santa Isabel toward San Andres. This led the Carranza guard into the trap which Villa is said to have set for them, the government report stated. The battle along the railroad poured a heavy fire into the Carranza troops from behind rocks, according to the report.

The same source of information claims to have confirmation of the report that the Carranza troops then retreated to Santa Isabel, then to Palomas and are now reported to be in Fresco, the first station west of Chihuahua City.

General Jacinto Trevino sent an official denial today to General Francisco Gonzalez in Juarez that General Ojuna had been killed during the fighting with the Villa forces. General Ojuna is alive and in good health.

RUSSIANS ADMIT THE LOSS OF CONSTANZA

[BULLETIN] Petrograd, Oct. 24. (Via London).—The occupation of Constanza and Medjidie in Dobrudja by forces of the Central powers is announced in today's war office report. Under hostile pressure, says the statement, the Russian and Rumanian troops retired to the heights north of these places.

GERMANS THREATEN ANOTHER IMPORTANT RUMANIAN TOWN

London, Oct. 24.—According to the London morning papers, the Germans appear to have forced the evacuation of the Constanza by cutting the trans-Dobudja railway about twenty miles west of the Black Sea coast. As the Germans make no claim to Constanza, it is assumed here that the Rumanians made good their retirement.

The Morning Press says: "While the loss of Constanza is serious, the threat against Tchernavoda is more serious, if it is true. The only bridge across the Danube between Belgrade and the sea is at Tchernavoda, and complete possession of the railway and the bridge would open the way to Bucharest."

1,000 YARDS OF TRENCHES TAKEN NORTH OF SOMME

London, Oct. 24.—More than a thousand yards of German trenches in the region of Guedes court and Les Boule were taken by the British in the fighting north of the Somme river in France yesterday according to the official communication.

In the region of Grandcourt the British artillery stopped a German plan for an attack.

20 AERIAL COMBATS, FOUGHT IN THICK MIST; 3 TEUTON CRAFTS FALL

Paris, Oct. 24.—French and German artillery forces were busy last night south of the Somme, where an artillery duel raged in the Hinchin-Maine region. There was no infantry action along the French front in the Somme area, the war office announced today. Three German aeroplanes were brought down in the course of twenty aerial combats that occurred yesterday in the Verdun region during a thick mist.

SERBS AGAIN WIN

Paris, Oct. 24.—Serbian troops operating in the Cerna region on the Macedonian front have won a new success, according to today's announcement by the war office. A counter-attack launched by German and Bulgarian troops was stopped by the Serbian artillery. The Serbs then attacked the opposing lines and captured several trenches. On the Struma front, there is inactivity. River floods are interfering with the movement of troops.

CAPTURE OF CONSTANZA HAS PUT A DAMPER ON ENTHUSIASM OF THE ALLIES

Paris, Oct. 24.—The capture of Constanza by the Teutonic Allies, although not expected, nevertheless put a damper on the enthusiasm aroused by the continued progress of the entente allies on the front in Picardy. French commentators do not unduly exaggerate the importance of the achievement of Field Marshal Von Mackensen whose action up to the present time is considered here as a defensive one in shortening his front so as to hold it better with fewer men. They point out that the only way he could do this is to advance, since if he fell back his front on the contrary would be strengthened. These observers say also that if he manages to tie up the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobrudja by holding a narrow front slightly south of the railroad he will not be slow to employ his troops thus released to act in direct co-operation with the Austro-German army operating in Transylvania which, they assert is the essential front from which alone Bucharest can be attacked with any chance of decisive success.

Long before that, it is believed here, Rumania with the help of the Allies will be in a position to turn the tables upon its enemies. French critics assert that belief seemingly is justified by the gallant defense the Rumanians are maintaining in the pass of the Carpathians.

FILM CASE TO STUDY DISMISSED LUMBER BY COURT MARKET

Columbus, O., Oct. 24.—The supreme court of Ohio today dismissed the "Birth of a Nation" film case, holding that there is no law by which the court can decide whether the order of the Ohio Board of Censors restraining the producers from showing the film in this state is reasonable or unreasonable.

The action was brought to the supreme court on a petition of the Epoch Producing company asking that the order of the board of censors against the showing of the film be overruled. In dismissing the petition, the court, for the time being at least, has virtually ruled that the film cannot be shown in Ohio, as the decision made today leaves the power of the board of censors unmodified.

Members Of Brotherhoods Resist Orders To Support Wilson, Claims Chairman

New York, Oct. 24.—"Members of the various railroad brotherhoods in many states are resisting the efforts of their national officers to deliver their votes to President Wilson because of his support of the Adamson law. They feel that their officers are attempting to make them mere pawns in the political checker-board and they refuse to be delivered."

That was the statement made today by Arthur D. Burbank, chairman of the legislative board of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in Illinois. Mr. Burbank, whose duties require him to visit various lodges of his organization, declared that there was a decided trend towards Hughes among railroad men and that it daily is growing stronger. As the men have opportunity to study and discuss the so-called eight-hour law.

"The sentiment in favor of Wilson is disappearing," said Mr. Burbank, "and the evident attempt of the Grand Lodge officers to influence the membership is reacting. The railroad men as a class are pretty independent in politics and they do not want their officers to tell them how they should vote. The men who have always been Democrats are shouting a little louder than usual on this campaign but the men who have always been Republicans have not changed and are going to vote for Hughes."

"As to the Adamson law, none of our members understand it and are all more or less suspicious of it. Many feel that in departing from the established custom of joint conference and direct wage adjustments, the brotherhoods have made a great mistake. I have found many of our members who are more ready to criticize than to praise our national officers for dragging them into the political arena. The brotherhoods have made substantial progress in the last ten years through their economic forces, and the members feel that all that work has been lost and that wage and working conditions are now merely political issues."

"In the last two weeks I have noticed a decided change in sentiment, especially in Illinois. Our members have not forgotten the conditions which prevailed two years ago, when train crews were laid off by hundreds and thousands. They understand that the present prosperity is temporary, due entirely to the European war, and they want to see their bread and butter placed on a firmer foundation. They are afraid that the re-election of Wilson and a Democratic congress will result in a return to the deplorable conditions of two years ago before the war gave a temporary stimulus to industry."

"A recent statement issued by the president of one of the brotherhoods to the effect that the men who do not support Wilson are to be put in the class with men who would stand by the railroads in a strike, has caused a tremendous revolution of feeling and made thousands who were wavering come out openly for Hughes. Any union man with spirit, will resent such a slur."

"It is the first time national officers have attempted to tell how we shall vote and there are thousands like myself, who will not stand for such dictation. I am fully convinced that the sentiment among the railroad men for Hughes is growing stronger every day and when the ballots are counted, our national officers will find out that their political activities have been resented by the rank and file."

TABLEWARE JOINS GROUP OF ARTICLES THAT ARE INCREASING IN PRICE

East Liverpool, Ohio, Oct. 24.—Many potteries engaged in the manufacture of tableware today announced a general advance of twenty percent in selling prices. All goods are to be sold on the basis now in force and twenty percent will be added to invoices. There will be no discounts based on the time of payment. This is the third increase in the tableware trade this year, the first of five percent, having been made in March and the second, also of five percent, in July.

PREPARE TO SECURE THE SOLDIER VOTE

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Seventeen commissioners appointed by Governor Brumbaugh to take a vote of the 10,000 Pennsylvania national guardsmen on the Mexican border on November 7, took the oath of office today and prepared to leave for Texas. One commissioner is assigned to each of the seventeen commands in the field.

THE TALES THAT ARE TOLD

The German authorities have suppressed the Tages Post, a Stalin paper, for publishing the statement that "the submarine Bremen was torpedoed in an American port, after having safely passed the Irish coast and abandoned all the abominations of the British."

One wonders why such utterly baseless rumors find circulation to say nothing of belief, but, after all, it isn't so incredulous as human nature goes. Intemperateness of both the partisans of Germany and her enemies in this country breed such allegations that in a culmer state of mind would not find none of character to give them some standing. Such incidents, however, increase the admiration of the poise and fairness that President Wilson has shown in handling delicate foreign complications, made personally irritating by unjust and ungenerous criticism and heated declamation, tending to inflame the public mind, aggravated instance of which was furnished but recently in the outbreak of Theodore Roosevelt on the ravages of a German submarine off the American coast. Roosevelt was for war and reprisal then and there. But what was there to war about, what aggravation was there calling for reprisal. Six ships of neutral powers were blown up in the North Sea, Sunday. Certainly that was none of America's business. So far as the law of nations and the high seas go no more was the blowing up of neutral ships in the Atlantic ocean her business. The submarine operated outside the three mile limit, to which extent any nation with a sea coast is given jurisdiction. So thirty miles off coast is just as much on the high seas as is three hundred miles away. To have taken affront at the actions of the German submarine under established conditions would have been precipitating a quarrel of the baldest pretext. Such a pretense may have been assumed sufficient for one who wants to fight for the sake of fighting alone, or loves to war with the jawbone, but it is not justifiable to the calm, patient, wise man in whose hands the nation is fortunate in having its desire for peace and honorable peace reposing in these exigent times.

There is many a quiet laugh for the editor these days in reading exchanges, if he has some sense of humor. It is to be found in the righteous denunciation by the more partisan papers of some distinguished citizen, over whom there used to be much slobbering, for his desertion of party and thus becoming a low creature. Of course, to a lover of peace and prosperity none of the amusement is lost in that fact that nearly all the changes noted and denounced are to Wilson.

There is always work to be done. It was figured Portsmouth would be completely paved at the close of this year, but that didn't take into consideration the fact that she was growing and spreading out faster than the paving could be done. Fact is the town is expanding at all the sides and corners and that keeps its progress from being as noticeable as it was mainly in one direction.

Saturday was some business day. One merchant put it that twenty dollar bills were thicker than one dollar ones used to be in the old days after election. There was snap in the air and in the buying. Fact is the Peerless never knew anything like the good times now prevailing.

Knowing he so well deserves it, we suppose there ought to be no complaint on our part, that a handsome notice this able purveyor of opinion gave to A. G. Turnipseed, candidate for congress, should go through the press of the district, credited to the Waverly Watchman.

Anyway, it is acceptable, we suppose, to have the steel mills overcrowded with orders, no matter what the cause.

Might as well brag on a good thing while you have it, so we'll just ask if you ever saw such another day at this time of the year anywhere, as dawned on this old vineyard of the Lord Monday?

NO GETTING AROUND IT

NO: EVER THAT NAME

The term UNITED STATES is cumbersome and there is much complication grammatically in its use, while America is a designation claimed by two continents and it isn't exactly seemly, it would seem, that one particular nation should claim it as its own name. Considering this some one is forward with the suggestion that these United States be called Unistatia, a sort of dog-latin for a republic of states. It will never do. The word is worse than grotesque, it has an effeminate ring, a sort of airy, fairy Lillian suggestion, as it were. Let the double name stand as it is, the constitutional and the common, The United States and America. No breath is wasted in saying United States. It is as pregnant of meaning as are the bars and stars on the flag emblematic of the foundation and growth of the several parts and the nation as a whole. As for America it is known and accepted all the world over. At home and abroad it has had for a hundred years its peculiar meaning, the home of the free and the land of the brave. It is only during campaign that we appear to forget what it is and acclaim perforce what it isn't. She was never more America in fact and deed than she is today. Her homes are free from wreck of cannon and shell, her wives and daughters are not in lamentation over the death and maiming of father and brother by shot and bomb, her people are brave enough to keep one powerful nation at honorable peace. America the example and aspiration of the world. Let the name stand and be spoken with pride and thanksgiving so long as nations shall exist and men love right above gain, justice above might.

Wheat doesn't mean up to let bread gain anything on it, judging by the way it is jumping up.

May be the accessions from one side to the other are like those European victories, they sort of balance up the claims.

The Hughes-Wall Street Butterfly special that rolled so gaily out of New York to instruct the Lizzie Smiths and the Mary Joneses of the West how to vote has come to grief and a red light flashed in front of it. Back home it has come with derisive jeers as the petticoat limited.

The Roanoke World-News protests vigorously against a proposal before the Episcopal conference to designate the nearest Sunday to Washington's birthday as Washington Memorial Day. It says there has been too much of this mummery of Virginia parading her ancient past and it is high time for her to move up into the present. We will not say there isn't something in that.

Can't help but admit it. Huntington has put one over on us. A naval cruiser has been named after her.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 24—Bus boys in the golden palace of the large New York hotels are to get their first taste of American culture through the munificence of the New York Board of Education. They are to be helped upward on their path to becoming (tuxedoed waiters and look-alikes) through the continuation school plan.

The first class under the direction of Mrs. Florence Engle, of the public schools, met at the Majestic this morning and the 35 young Greeks, Spaniards and Austrians, who have been in this country from two weeks to two years were assigned to their desks.

They have individual desks, with slates and sponges. (The sponge is not significant.) They are taught to pronounce words, to read, and ethics—which means politeness.

Nicholas Popolous was asked to write a word on the blackboard. He wrote it. It spelled "Tip."

"What have you written?" asked the teacher.

"What nobody ever gives me," he replied.

But in a few short years Nicholas will no doubt be getting his share of tips for most of the Broadway waiters started in as bus boys and many of them now ride around in limousines and have beautiful homes in the country.

Oscar, of the Waldorf, who started as a bus boy, is soon to retire to his country place with a fortune that is said to be in the millions.

A family of newly riches who came from the social ooze of the oil fields of Oklahoma have caused a great stir along the exclusive sections of Fifth Avenue by buying ground for the erection of a palace which will be a cross between the Temple of Karnak and the Grand Central Station.

It is their intention, it is said, to bust right into society, and the upper circles are fearing they will, for the man of the house has a bank account that will produce the wallop.

They started off by entertaining Bohemia in the magenta and gold dining saloon, but now they are entertaining some of the fringe of society.

The fear is that soon they will be entertaining social leaders. The head of the family has joined a Fifth Avenue club and has secured a box for the opera. Bets are being made in social circles as to whether or not they will get in the inner circles. The odds favor them.

It is a far cry from catching rats in a cellar in Scotland to becoming a netted durling on Fifth Avenue, but the Scottish terrier has accomplished it. The terrier is becoming the last word in dogs and the price for them is going upward steadily.

Instead of feeding on rats he now eats creamed scallops and marrons glaces and wears diamond studded collars.

Dog fanciers claim that the Scottish terrier is far more popular this winter than the Pekinese. And the Pekese is of royal birth, too. His forbears for years occupied an important place in the golden palace of the Chinese Emperors.

The Boston bull is next in the point of popularity. His price has doubled and by next winter many believe he will be the most popular of becoming (tuxedoed waiters and look-alikes).

New York women who reside on Riverside Drive have organized to save Riverside Park. They claim that the railroad that has tracks along it is despoiling the beauty of the trees and that the odor from the live stock cars is almost unbearable.

The railroad has half way consented to a plan to lower the tracks, but the blasting would go on for about 10 years and this, the women claim, would be as much of a nuisance as the other annoyances.

Chester Riggles left Monday on a short business trip through Adams county in the interest of the Wolf Clothing company. He made the trip in the newly painted machine of the firm, which is attracting attention. It's body is painted a bright yellow, the wheels are done in red and the rims are painted black. The Ladies—Bless 'Em

They ventured into business; No longer seemed it strange That they would rather pound the keys Than steer the kitchen range.

And now they're going farther; 'Twill add a zest to life When husband's for the G. O. P. 'Gainst Democratic wife.

But bide your time, you fellows, 'Till juries they become; Our court-rooms may be dull and drear, But they will make things hum!

Just think how much discussion There'll be until they find What costume for the jury box Is just the proper kind.

And think what gleeful moments There'll be for all of us When twelve fair jurors hand the court A verdict running thus:

"We know he chokes his mother And beats her when she cries, But Judge, you'd better let him off, He has such darling eyes."

Yes, changes strange and diverse Will come, but just the same Our lives will be more spicy when The girls get in the game.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Pa Wanted That Attic and That Book So Much

By CLIFF STERRETT

Sheriff Clears Innocent Man; Arrests Guilty One

The diligence of Sheriff E. W. Smith brought to light a case of mistaken identity Tuesday, after which four indictments resting against Charles Hill, a stranger in this city, were nollied by Judge Thomas, common pleas court, upon the request of the state attorney, and the young man was released from custody.

During the second week in August two checks were forged and passed by a young man, signing his name as Harry Malone. Each check was for $4.50. One was passed at the Biggs house saloon and the other at Capt. Winters' saloon.

Sheriff E. W. Smith immediately got in touch with the case and trailed a young man named Herbert Waddell, whom he suspected to be in Columbus and there lost him.

A week or so later Capt. Winters and Frank Bryan, of the saloons captured Hill and held him for the police, charging him with forgery.

Hill's case was investigated by the September term of grand jury and indictments were returned.

In talking with Hill, Sheriff E. W. Smith became convinced that the prisoner was the wrong man. So while in Columbus last Saturday he called upon the Columbus police and there learned that Herbert Waddell had been arrested September 22 for forgery, indicted and sent to the Mansfield Reformatory October 12.

The sheriff then believed that Waddell had something to do with the case and subpoenaed him to appear in this city.

A field officer brought Waddell to this city Monday evening and Tuesday morning the young man confessed to all the transactions in this city. He claimed that he had executed the checks and passed them.

Frank Bryan of the Biggs house and Capt. Winters were both at the hearing. Neither could identify Waddell but the story told by the young man from Mansfield Reformatory convinced them that he was guilty.

Fiscal Court Will Meet

Greenup, Ky., Oct. 24.—The fiscal court will meet October 31 and a great deal of business will be attended. Fifty thousand dollars worth of road and bridge bonds are advertised for bidders on that date, also the county wants bidders on culvert pipes and maintenance of the Ohio river road from Riverton to Wurtland.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS BEFORE MAYOR; EDITOR IN BUNCH

Quite an array of witnesses was examined by Mayor H. H. Kaps Monday evening in hearing the case of H. T. Walker, a chauffeur for Grocer J. B. Thomas, of New Boston, whom John Vogt charged with violating the traffic laws.

The filing of the affidavit against the young man was the sequel to a collision between the car which he was driving and a touring car that Mrs. Vogt was driving in front of the Sugar Bowl, corner Gallia and Findlay streets recently. Mrs. Vogt's car crashed into the rear of the other but she contended that she was on the right side of the street and was driving slowly but that Thomas drove in right ahead of her. The mayor reserved his decision in the case.

Valley Harold, one of the editors of The Times, and Messrs. Leslie C. Turley and Joseph Lovine were also before the mayor for alleged traffic violations. The former was accused of not carrying a rear license tag on his car. It developed that his colored chauffeur had lost the tag but had neglected to mention the fact to his employer and later some boy found it. The boy demanded fifty cents reward which the chauffeur was unable to pay. At the time but he got the tag from the boy the next day though he did not place it back on the machine. Mr. Harold also told the court that he was unaware of his car having been out on the day referred to. "You better keep a line on your chauffeur or you'll likely experience what I did and some day find your car ditched and wrecked," said the mayor.

Mr. Lovine and Mr. Turley were reminded of the law regarding the transfer of license tags in trades or sales of cars. Mr. Lovine it seems had traded a roadster to Mr. Turley for his touring car and no change was made in the license tags. In looking up numbers Sunday to determine the owner of a car that had been left standing on the wrong side of the street Sunday Chief Clark found that it was Mr. Lovine but that the car was still listed in Mr. Turley's name. Mr. Turley told the court that he at the time had told Mr. Lovine and Harry Howe to attend to the changing of the tags. All of the cases were dismissed by the mayor.

FIGURES SHOW THE CITY HAS 35,000 POPULATION

Registration figures are always regarded as concrete evidence of a city's growth.

Based on a ratio of five to one, Portsmouth now has a population of approximately 35,000.

The registration figures for 1916, as filed with the election board Monday, were 6,810. They probably will reach 7,000 by the time those who have been out of the city, or were too ill to register, are equipped with their voting credentials at the election hour.

Within the past 20 years, or from 1896 to 1916, Portsmouth has gained 3,041 in registration, which means 15,000 in population during this period.

In 1896 the total registration was 3,769 and in 1916 it is 6,810.

The registration figures for presidential elections from 1896 to 1916 follow:

1896	3769
1900	4439
1904	4986
1908	5093
1912	6012
1916	6810

SENATOR OLLIE JAMES MAY BE HEARD HERE

Assurances have been given by the State Democratic committee that Senator Ollie James, of Kentucky, will deliver an address in Portsmouth sometime before the November election, according to William West, secretary of the Scioto County Democratic Executive Committee.

Mr. West said that the dates for the big Democratic rallies which are to be held in Portsmouth, will be announced within the next few days.

Democratic Meetings

Hon. Will P. Haynes, Democratic candidate for state senator, is scheduled for several speeches in the county during the coming week.

On Friday evening he will speak at Otway and Garden.

Monday evening, October 30, he will conduct meetings at South Webster and Harrisonville. The meeting at South Webster will commence at 6 p. m., and the one at Harrisonville at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Davidson Rests Well After Accident

W. N. Nat Davidson, former chief of police, who shot off his left hand Monday morning when an automatic Remington 12 gauge shotgun was accidentally discharged, rested well at Hempstead hospital last night and probably will be able to be taken to the home of his son-in-law, Rawley Moorhead of High street tonight.

Mr. Davidson had placed the gun on the seat of his automobile and as he climbed in the gun fell to the floor and he grabbed for it. In some manner the trigger was snapped and he received the contents of the gun in his left hand, it being torn to shreds. Amputation of the hand at the wrist was made by Dr. J. G. Locke.

Mr. Davidson was waiting for his son-in-law to join him and he thought that he had removed all the shells out of the gun before putting it in the machine.

DRAGGING AROUND, CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS?

You'll Feel A Remarkable Difference in 30 Minutes After Taking a Wineglassful of Tollo Water

Feeling tired and nervous, tongue covered with a furry coat, skin sallow, constipated. Your food feels as heavy as lead. It all comes from your liver. Too much rich food has choked the bile tubes; you become constipated and the bile is being absorbed into the system.

TOLLO WATER from Dawson Springs, Kentucky, will give quick relief. Get a 15-cent bottle from the drug store—pour about a third of a tumblerful in a glass of plain water and drink it before breakfast. In a few minutes it will flush—really wash out—the bile and waste from the system and start you feeling fine. Then you can eat all you want without feeling stuffed or bloated. You will know again the pleasure of an active energetic life.

OBITUARY

Valentine Widdig
Valentine Widdig, a well-known local German citizen, passed to his final reward Monday evening at 7 o'clock, following a lingering illness with gout, trouble, for which he had been treated for several weeks by specialists. His death was not unexpected, as he had hovered between life and death for several days. He passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jacob Brunner, of Fifth street.

For forty-six years Mr. Widdig faithfully worked for the Damarin family, having been custodian of the Damarin block, Second street, for many years.

After leaving the Damarin building, he went to the Damarin home, where he remained up until several weeks before his death.

Valentine Widdig was born at Pine Grove Furnace September 23, 1847. His parents were Frederick and Katherine Widdig.

During his boyhood days he was always known as an apt student, a loyal companion and a faithful friend. He was confirmed at the Lutheran church, Pine Grove, early in life.

When but a young man, he moved to Portsmouth and took employment with Mr. A. M. Damarin.

For the past week Dr. A. Crotte, Columbus specialist, had been here attempting to relieve the sufferings of the late Mr. Widdig without performing an operation. But the case had become too acute and his death soon ensued.

He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Chris, Lucinda; John, Charles, Henry; Mrs. Jacob Brunner, this city; Adam, McIntosh; George, Lucasville, and Mrs. John Bice, Wheelersburg.

The funeral services are to be conducted from the German Evangelical church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Samuel Lindemeyer will have charge of the services.

Alvia Tackett
Death at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning claimed Alvia Tackett, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tackett, of Harrisonville avenue, New Boston, death coming to the boy at Hempstead hospital.

The deceased was ill two weeks with typhoid fever and only last Saturday was removed to Hempstead hospital. The deceased was bright for his age and attended the New Boston school. He made many friends and playmates who will miss him.

Besides his parents the deceased leaves four sisters, May, Mattie, Berdie and Mary at home, and two brothers, Ollie and Walter, of Firebrick, Ky. The father is employed in the brick yard at Firebrick, Ky. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Will See Big Game

Karl Zoellner is planning to attend the Michigan-Pennsylvania football game at Ann Arbor, Mich., November 16.

Great Meeting In East End

The East End Scouts of Troop 8 met in social session last night at the home of Scout Frank Davis, 1309 Center street. The event was the celebration of the host's seventeenth birthday. The first part of the evening's program was devoted to the transaction of important business in which two additional patrol leaders were elected for 1916-17. The new patrol leaders are Harold Bierley and Harold Cummins. Sectional conferences of the four patrols of the troop were then held, and reports submitted later on in the evening. Corwin Knowles, Scout Scribe, made an appeal for memberships for the First Class Fraternity, asking that this troop furnish four new members for the First Class rank before the Fraternity's next meeting. Frank Davis gave an interesting report on the troop's athletic activities, which showed that two teams of the troop had been successful in basketball the coming winter. Three new members were received: Floyd Beyer, Charles Backley and Raymond Sanders. At the close of this program the boys enjoyed a splendid party.

G. O. P. WILL RUN A SPECIAL TO COLUMBUS

A special train over the Norfolk and Western railroad, leaving the city at two o'clock Monday afternoon, October 30, has been arranged by the Executive Committee of this county. This train will take a crowd of local Republicans to Columbus where they will participate in the huge torchlight parade which will be held in honor of Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president.

The River City Band has been engaged to make the trip with the local Republicans.

Every member of the Scioto County Republican Club is asked by John F. Eckhart, chairman of the County Executive committee to make an effort to go on the trip.

"The first hundred to guarantee the train were easy to secure," said Mr. Eckhart Tuesday, "but we want several hundred to make the trip. We are promised one of the biggest torchlight parades that has ever been held in Columbus and Mr. Hughes will deliver a speech. The special will not leave for home until the festivities there are over."

All Republicans and members of the club are expected to notify headquarters of their intentions or see some of the members of the executive committee.

given by the young host. At the close of a very delightful program of music by Miss Alma Davis, Miss Marsh and Mr. Prince, refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Davis, mother of the host. The following were present: M. H. F. Kinsey, Richard Boyd, L. C. Murphy, Maurice Mendel, Merrill Marsh, Dursie Hamilton, Carl Edwards, Arthur Eisenangle, Corwin Knowles, James Scott, Glenn Moore, Marvin Putzke, Joe Davis, Jacob Pfau, Charles Crabtree, Philip Knauss, Raymond Russell, Don Russell, Denver Dougherty, Jennings Dodge, Glenn Harley, Harold Iberley, Harold Dunn, Kenneth Davis, Charles Buckley, Floyd Baer, Carl Walker and Russell Williams.

Troop One Tonight
Troop One will meet promptly at 6:30 this evening at the First Presbyterian church in charge of Scoutmaster H. W. Wagner. This is patrol formation night and every boy should be present to learn what patrol he is assigned to for the coming year.

Basketball Tonight
The following Boy Scout basketball games are scheduled tonight: Eagles vs. Covenanters; East End vs. Tigers; Reds vs. Grays. All three games will be fast and all scouts are invited. The first game will start promptly at 7:15 p. m.

Troop Nine Notice
Troop 9 will meet this evening at the U. B. church at 7:00 o'clock. Mr. C. W. Ridenour will be present with one of his good talks for the boys. Let all be out. ROBERT SCHMIDT, Scribe.

HAMMER AND PAINT

The S. Monroe & Son Company have all of the foundation work for the new flood wall completed and the wall itself finished as far as Thompson street, with the exception of the several openings left to get material through.

Making Salt

Great improvements have been made in the methods of making high grade salt both by the grainer and vacuum pan processes. The mechanical grainers in which the brine enters the pans and is not touched by human hands and it is almost ready for shipment are marvels of ingenuity. Fine table salt is now made almost exclusively by vacuum pan processes. These evaporators have so greatly reduced the cost of making fine salt that the old methods long ago passed into history.

Another Officer Turns In Badge

Patrolman A. C. Richmond resigned from the police force Monday evening, giving as his reason that he did not find the work to his liking. He has several offers to him, consideration but will first take a few weeks' rest. Before entering the police service he was employed for four years as switchman in the N. & W. yard at East Portsmouth and previously had express and baggage runs between Portsmouth and Cincinnati for ten years.

He is the fourth policeman to turn in his badge and mace within the past few weeks. Other policemen who resigned were Templeman, Albrecht and Nance.

Fine Gain Shown

The official parcel post count for the first fifteen days in October, which was completed recently by Superintendent of Mail W. J. Griver, shows a substantial gain over the same period of last year.

During this period, 6639 parcel post packages were received and 5055 were sent out. Those forwarded from this city weighed 17,851 pounds and 15 ounces. The postage on the out-going packages amounted to $548.51.

The largest package received weighed 45 pounds and the smallest one ounce.

The largest number of packages mailed go to the second zone. In all there were 1044 mailed to points in this zone.

Almost ten times as many packages are mailed to local points from out of the city than mailed to the same points from this city. In all there were 39 packages mailed in Portsmouth to points near Portsmouth. There were 341 packages mailed to this city from other points.

John Gullion, of Ironton, who several months ago shot and killed his father, was found guilty of first degree murder Monday and Judge E. E. Corn sent him to the penitentiary for life.
